Dubuque, Iowa 52003-7769

Founded in 1854

Wartburg Theological Seminary is a seminary of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Accreditation

Wartburg Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Accrediting of the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS), 10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15275-1103, (412) 788-6505, www.ats.edu, and by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), 230 South La Salle Street, Suite 7-500, Chicago, Illinois 60604, (800) 621-7740, www.hlcommission.com. The seminary is approved for the degree programs it currently offers: Master of Divinity, Master of Arts, and the Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry. The seminary is approved by the ATS for a Comprehensive Distance Education Program. The seminary was last reaccredited in 2018 for another ten-year period by both ATS and HLC, with the next accreditation visits anticipated in 2027-2028.

Non-Discriminatory Policy

In compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et. seq., and federal regulations, 34 C.F.R. Part 106, it is the policy of Wartburg Seminary to consider candidates for academic admission, for financial assistance, and for employment, without regard to gender, race, age, marital status, disability, religion, national or ethnic background, and sexual orientation, or any characteristics protected by law. As an organization of the church, however, the seminary may consider religious factors, including policies of the church and decisions of synod candidacy committees.

From the President:

Welcome to Wartburg Theological Seminary; well, at least to the pages of our catalog!

I am heartened that you are interested in Wartburg and discerning the call of the Holy Spirit to public ministry. As you explore these pages, I hope you find many things that draw you to the Wartburg community.

I want to share with you the verses from Jeremiah that are going to shape our strategic work together in the coming three years:

*Blessed are those who trust in the LORD,
whose trust is the LORD.
They shall be like a tree planted by water,
sending out its roots by the stream.
It shall not fear when heat comes,
and its leaves shall stay green;
in the year of drought it is not anxious,
and it does not cease to bear fruit. Jeremiah 17:7-8*

The title of our strategic plan is “Rooted and Renewing.” When you come to Wartburg Seminary, you become a part of a long-standing tradition that has its roots in worship-centered formation, an honest and prayerful wrestling with open questions, and deep global connections. And, you will play your part in shaping a community that is renewing: renewing a curriculum that best prepares leaders for congregations, communities and institutions in our dynamic, 21st-century context; renewing student support that happens pre-, post- and during seminary life; and renewing a life together that holds us as one community wherever we are in the world.

Like Jeremiah, at Wartburg, we trust in the Lord. And that trust helps us to be non-anxious leaders in times of uncertainty. That trust nourishes us with life-giving water, water that we then share with others who are thirsty. And that trust keeps our leaves green and growing, allowing us to bear fruit for the sake of the gospel in the world, and life abundant for the neighbor and the stranger.

There is much more I could say, but, if you are discerning a call to seminary, it would be so much better if you just come and see for yourself! The castle, and the community, will captivate your heart and your imagination. Come spend a day or two with us, and stay connected for a lifetime. I look forward to welcoming you to campus!

Your sibling in Christ,

Seminary President

Our Mission

Seminary Mission, Vision, and Values

(As adopted in 2023 by the Board of Directors.)

Wartburg Seminary's Mission:

Wartburg Theological Seminary serves Christ's church through the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by being a worship-centered community of critical theological reflection where learning leads to mission and mission informs learning.

The community embodies God's mission by stewarding resources for engaging, equipping, and sending collaborative leaders who interpret, proclaim and live the gospel of Jesus Christ for a world created for communion with God and in need of personal and social healing.

Wartburg Seminary's Vision:

Wartburg Theological Seminary—in partnership with the local and global church—seeks to form Christ-centered, resilient, and adaptive leaders for the thriving of congregations and the healing of the world. Wartburg graduates are called to be leaders with a passion for Christ and compassion for communities. They will faithfully embody the story of Jesus Christ and invite others into this transformative story with hope and joy.

Wartburg Seminary's Values:

As a Christ-centered community of worship and learning, Wartburg Theological Seminary deepens and reimagines its historic commitments to theological education that is diverse, sustainable, and transformative, grounded in and bearing witness to the good news of Jesus Christ.

Pastoral-Diaconal Practices

The Wartburg Theological Seminary faculty is deeply committed to certain pastoral and diaconal practices that we foster in Wartburg graduates based on our mission. By "pastoral-diaconal" we intend to include all graduates and their ministries, not just students in the Master of Divinity program or having a title of "pastor" or "deacon." And by "practices" we do not mean mere actions that are performed. Rather, these ministry practices are understood to be incarnated and embodied in being as well as doing. They aim toward coherence between one's disposition and one's practice of ministry. Graduates thus informed are able to give reason why they act in a particular way. Effective formation has instilled a fundamental attitude out of which one then does.

The following twelve practices articulate central educational goals of the seminary curriculum:

"Wartburg Theological Seminary..."

[Three overarching practices]

1. Practice of Being Rooted in the Gospel: Articulates the Gospel in a way that is heard as Gospel. Is publicly Lutheran and Gospel-centered.
2. Practice of Missio Dei in Word and Sacrament: Is grounded in Word and Sacrament as the means by which God creates faith in Christ and a community (koinonia) for God's mission (martyria and diakonia) in the world. Pastors exercise faithful worship preparation, evangelical preaching, and sacramental leadership. Deacons serve as a strategic bridge between church and world. All the baptized are sent by the Spirit to employ their gifts in God's mission for the life of the world.
3. Practice of Biblical and Theological Wisdom: Interprets reality theologically and biblically as a habit. Has a core set of theological concepts that are interpreted with flexibility in different contexts.

"...serves Christ's church through the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by being a worship-centered community of critical theological reflection where learning leads to mission and mission informs learning."

4. Practice of Ecclesial Partnership: Displays a healthy sense of connectedness with the whole church. Fosters partnership with the ELCA and ecumenical openness.
5. Practice of Complex Analysis: Demonstrates capacity to carefully examine complex social, economic, scientific, and religious issues without oversimplification. Sees relationships from a systems perspective, remaining spiritually centered in the face of ambiguity.
6. Practice of Curiosity: Is fundamentally curious, employing creativity in the use of language. Is open to grow beyond current perspectives and eager to pursue learning with intellectual depth.

“The community embodies God’s mission by stewarding resources for engaging, equipping, and sending collaborative leaders...”

7. Practice of Pastoral Concern: Loves God’s people with the compassion of Christ, demonstrating a generous spirit in relating to others, teaching and modeling stewardship. Maintains a clear sense of ministerial identity and desire for excellence in ministry.
8. Practice of Personal Faith and Integrity: Lives as person of faith, grounded in a life of prayer and study. Is self-aware in seeing the larger picture, proclaiming hope, leading courageously, and setting healthy boundaries.
9. Practice of Collegiality: Leads in a way that is responsive to the situation and promotes team building. Creates collegial groups within and beyond the church for promoting many forms of ministry.

“...who interpret, proclaim and live the gospel of Jesus Christ for a world created for communion with God and in need of personal and social healing.”

10. Practice of Evangelical Listening and Speaking the Faith to Others: Listens in a way that leads people to deeper faith questions. Engages in thoughtful witness to the Christian message, especially to youth and those outside the faith.
11. Practice of Immersion in the Context: Shows awareness of the context through listening to, dialogue with and involvement in the local community. Has ability to interpret texts and contexts with insight.
12. Practice of Engagement with Cross-Cultural and Global Dimensions: Engages multicultural issues and religious pluralism in the context of globalization. Understands the inclusive character of the Christian Gospel.

Wartburg’s History, Campus Resources, and Outreach

Our Heritage

The history of Wartburg Seminary goes back to the missionary efforts of Wilhelm Loehe in Neuendettelsau, Germany. Pastors sent out from Neuendettelsau founded an educational institution in Saginaw, Michigan, in 1852. The following year the school was moved to Dubuque, and in 1854 seminary education was begun. Four years later, adverse economic conditions forced a move to St. Sebald in Clayton County, Iowa, where the name Wartburg was first chosen. In 1875 expansion necessitated a move to Mendota, Illinois, where the seminary remained until 1889, when it was returned to Dubuque.

Several seminaries have merged with Wartburg over the years. In 1932, St. Paul Luther Seminary of the Ohio synod was moved to the Wartburg campus. In 1956, Trinity Theological Seminary in Blair, Nebraska, (United Evangelical Lutheran Church) was moved to Dubuque and officially merged with Wartburg at the formation of The American Lutheran Church in 1960. In 1983, Christ Seminary-Seminex in St. Louis, Missouri, dispersed its faculty and other resources among three seminaries in anticipation of the formation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Wartburg was one of the three seminaries and as part of that dispersal, received for its Austin, Texas, program the Seminex library and library director, one faculty member, and a few students. At the beginning of the ELCA on January 1, 1988, those resources officially merged with Wartburg.

“The Castle”

The present campus of some 35 acres is situated on the brow of a ridge in southwest Dubuque, commanding a beautiful view in all directions of the hill country surrounding this city on the Mississippi River.

The primary structure on campus is a series of five named buildings that are inter-connected and surround a quadrangle on three sides. The buildings, affectionally called “The Castle,” are built from sandstone originally quarried from the edge of our campus property. Construction started in 1914 (and finished a couple of years later) following a design that by some views (particularly from the southwest, looking over the valley formed by nearby Catfish Creek) that strikingly looks like Wartburg Castle in Eisenach, Germany. The quadrangle itself contains a large statue of Martin Luther.

The stone buildings consist of the following connected structures (as arranged along the north, west, and south sides of the quadrangle):

1. Fritschel Hall, named after the Fritschel brothers who help lead Wartburg Theological Seminary in its earliest years, is our primary administrative and classroom building. Fritschel Hall was just recently renovated, in a major 2022-2023 project (the fourth such adjustment since its initial construction), to keep the building functional to modern standards. The building houses many of our major classrooms and an auditorium, and incorporates the Reu Memorial Library (including the ELCA/WTS archives, and an extensive rare book library) and offices for the seminary president, the academic dean, the faculty, and the Department of Vocation and Formation (which includes admissions, candidacy, and financial aid);
2. Tower Building, which holds the Loehe Chapel, the seminary kitchen and its Refectory (dining hall), offices for the Business and Development Offices, plus Communications and Information Technology, and includes the maintenance shops in its lowest level, and several more classrooms and meeting spaces. The Tower Building is faced by Grossmann Tower (named after another early founder of the seminary), an imposing structure that functions as the “narthex” to the campus and particularly Loehe Chapel;
3. Mendota Hall, which is named after an earlier location for the seminary prior to its permanent home in Dubuque, provides an additional classroom, a small office suite, and contains upstairs our primary guest housing facility, with twelve guest rooms over two floors;
4. Afton Hall, which is also named for an early seminary location, holds Afton Lounge on the main floor as a relaxing meeting and study space, plus in the basement is home for the “Re-Creation Room,” a wellness and exercise space for the campus community; and
5. The Residence Hall, a structure that provides housing for single or unaccompanied students. The Residence Hall, prior to its 2001 renovation, used to be divided as three separate stairwell entries leading to dormitory rooms, with each entry named after previous locations of the seminary (St. Sebald, Dubuque) or schools (St. Paul) that merged into today’s Wartburg Theological Seminary. Now the building is entirely reorganized to provide private rooms (with private baths) to 44 students or guests along four full-length floors.

The Reu Memorial Library

The Library of Wartburg Theological Seminary will serve Wartburg’s mission to form leaders for the church by serving as a space, both physically and digitally, to gather its community near and far to foster relationships, inspire and support learning, and enrich ongoing formation by: creating access to resources for geographically dispersed, linguistically diverse, and differently abled community members, including students, staff, faculty, families, alumni, and congregational partners; providing a variety of flexible spaces for collaboration connecting community members within and across modalities for work, play, and study, supporting their continued development as leaders for the church; and integrating technology in a way that it is adaptable, changing it as our needs change.

The library is a member of the Digital Theological Library. Through this membership WTS students, faculty, and staff have access to eBooks and electronic journals. The DTL has collections in Spanish, Chinese, and French. The Reu Memorial Library subscribes to Atla Religion Database and other online databases. The physical collection includes over 80,000 books and 17,000 bound periodicals.

The library mails books to WTS distant students. Distant students may keep items until they are back on campus unless needed by another patron. The library is a member of Atla Reciprocal Borrowing program which has 118 members. WTS students and faculty may borrow books at any of the member libraries. The library is an Iowa Open Access library which allows WTS students and faculty to borrow books from any Iowa Open Access library.

Library staff is available to help WTS students and faculty via Zoom (teleconference software) whenever the library is open. WTS students and faculty may also contact the library through email, phone, or in person. Online videos teach the use of resources. Inter-Library Loan service is available. WTS students and faculty may suggest library resource purchases.

The library facility provides various study spaces to suit the study style of the student as well as computers, a copier/printer/scanner, and Zoom stations. The reserve shelves house course required and recommended texts. Course reserves are also available electronically via the library catalog. The library is a member of DALINC (Dubuque Area Libraries in Consortium) which allows WTS students and faculty to check out physical books from the member libraries in person.

More than just the Main Buildings

In addition to the five main stone buildings that make up “the Castle,” the remainder of our campus property defines a unique housing community dedicated to seminary education. Most of the land is occupied for housing students who are married and with families, or as small groups of same-gender students who want a more shared-living housing option, providing both individual “ranch” houses built in the 1960s (the Blair Court houses) and duplex “townhouses” built in the 1980s (the Denver Court houses). Also on campus is a 1940s home built specifically for the seminary president and their family, which remains occupied for such use to this day, plus another older duplex house currently used for non-student, longer-term temporary housing, and a 1950s former apartment building now used for rentable student storage space. All these residences and buildings are accessible by private roads within the campus or from along Wartburg Place, including being marked for slow passage to insure the safety of children, in order to provide a very hospitable environment for living during one’s time in seminary. And between the housing and the seminary buildings is a seminary playground area (“Kindercastle”) and a small sports field to add to the recreational options.

Heritage of the Papua New Guinea Mission Museum

The missionary efforts of Neuendettelsau that led to the establishment of Wartburg Theological Seminary are also the roots of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Papua New Guinea. After the outbreak of World War I when aid from Germany was cut off, including the sending of new missionaries, the small Lutheran church of Australia, struggling to hold the large mission field in New Guinea, sent cultural artifacts to the seminary in Dubuque in an effort to interest American missionaries in the Papua New Guinea work. This original collection has received additions over the years and is housed in the Papua New Guinea Museum. Several hundred works of art, weapons, pieces of jewelry, photographs and household objects document a culture from pre-missionary times. The museum is a tangible link with Wartburg Theological Seminary’s heritage of mission education, as well as an invaluable resource for researchers, interested groups, and individuals. The seminary welcomes inquiries as to gifts of artifacts that would enhance the collection. Tours may be arranged by calling the seminary.

Archives

The archives of Wartburg Theological Seminary contain the archival records of the seminary; the German Lutheran Synod of Iowa, 1854-1930; and Region 5 of the ELCA which covers the states of Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Upper Michigan. Particularly valuable collections include:

- a. the papers, correspondence, sermons, and writings of J. Michael Reu, a professor of Wartburg Theological Seminary, 1899-1943;
- b. the Iowa Synod Correspondence file-about 12,000 letters to and from the leadership of the Iowa Synod, 1850-1930;
- c. more than 20 original letters from Wilhelm Loehe, many translated; and
- d. the membership records and other materials from many disbanded congregations in the ELCA Region 5 area

Usually the archives are open in the morning or by appointment. Call 563-583-0320, or ask at the library desk. Inquiries may be addressed to:

Center for Global Theologies (CGT)

The Center for Global Theologies strengthens the ongoing dedication of the seminary to the global and local mission of the church through multi-dimensional activities.

CGT Mission and Goals

The Center for Global Theologies serves to:

1. Focus the commitments of Wartburg Theological Seminary to the global mission of the church;
2. Infuse those commitments into the programs and policies of the institution through scholarly research, church linkages, academic, and programmatic initiatives;
3. Facilitate the encounter with “difference” in order to enhance self-understanding;
4. Enrich those involved in such encounters by recognizing the connections between local and global contexts.

The Center for Global Theologies, under the guidance of the faculty and in collaboration with other Wartburg programs (especially in cooperation with the Globalization Committee) focuses on the following areas:

Scholarship Relate to global Christianity and emerging theologies in the United States as well as internationally.

Relationship Strengthen and expand existing global partnerships and develop new partnerships in conjunction with the ELCA Global Mission Unit.

Experience Organize and promote immersions and exchanges for students and faculty.

Learning Support active integration of global learning. Cultivate learning at Wartburg and in local congregations.

Support Seek funding to promote and expand the visions and goals of the center.

Center for Theology and Land (CTL)

“to strengthen the ministry of the rural church”

The center’s rural ministry emphasis helps to equip seminarians with the skills needed to serve in a rural setting. The center takes seriously a theological understanding of land, agriculture, ecology, and rural community, an important endeavor to the ELCA considering the number of its congregations in such settings.

The center sponsors field experience courses in rural communities and congregations during the fall semester and J-term as well as classroom courses in rural ministry. The center also hosts the annual Rural Ministry Conference. This three-day continuing education event features leading experts in rural ministry issues and is an excellent networking opportunity for rural pastors and lay people of all denominations.

CTL Program and Mission

- Teaches and expands the curriculum offerings available for seminarians who will provide future leadership in the rural church. A concentration in rural ministry is available to interested students.
- Offers field experience courses to seminarians across the nation.
- Coordinates regular lunch meetings for seminary students to discuss issues relevant to rural ministry.
- Hosts the annual Rural Ministry Conference.
- Offers online courses in rural ministry for seminarians, lay commissioned pastors, and for those seeking continuing education credits.

The mission of the Center for Theology and Land is to strengthen rural churches and their communities. It does this in three ways:

- 1) Deliberate and systematic training of ministers for small and rural churches;
- 2) Providing continuing education courses and workshops for clergy and laity in rural settings;
- 3) Helping empower rural churches for mission in their communities.

Centro Teológico Luterano Multicultural (CTLM)

The purpose of Centro Teológico Luterano Multicultural (CTLM) is as follows: Wartburg Theological Seminary supports the larger vision of the ELCA in its work to diversify both ordained and lay leadership and grow multicultural congregations. WTS has committed the resources of CTLM to further this work.

Based in Texas, CTLM implements its role in this larger vision in two primary ways. First, CTLM provides education and support for new and existing Latine leaders, both lay and ordained, building networks of support for both Latine leaders and worshipping communities. Second, CTLM provides training for ELCA synods, congregations, and pastors/deacons seeking to be formed for effective multicultural ministries, particularly those that seek to accompany Latine ministries. To do this work, CTLM offers training sessions both virtually and in person for individuals and small groups from congregations and facilitates cohort groups for ongoing support and education. In short, Centro Teológico Luterano Multicultural exists to provide education and support for new and existing lay and ordained Latine leaders and their worshipping communities, and to provide training for ELCA congregations, pastors, and synod staff members seeking to be formed for effective multicultural ministries.

Wartburg Theological Seminary now has programs in place that can continue the work LSPS housed for decades, including distance M.Div. programs and competency-based TEEM programs in English and Spanish [Caminemos Juntos]. This allows Centro Teológico Luterano Multicultural to focus on other activities that are more specifically geared toward Latine communities and congregations who are seeking to become more diverse. This new initiative continues and expands Wartburg’s long commitment to Latine ministries and leaders.

For questions or to request more information, please contact:
Pastor Violeta Siguenza, Director, CTLM: vsiguenza@wartburgseminary.edu

El propósito del Centro Teológico Luterano Multicultural (CTLM) es: El Seminario Wartburg apoya la amplia visión de la IELA (ELCA) en su trabajo de diversificar el liderazgo tanto ordenado como laico y de ayudar a formar congregaciones multiculturales. El Seminario Wartburg cuenta con recursos ya asignados a CTLM para continuar y expandir este trabajo.

Basado en Texas, CTLM implementa su participación en esta visión de dos maneras principales. Primero, CTLM provee educación y apoyo para nuevos y existentes líderes Latinos, construyendo redes de apoyo tanto para dichos líderes como para las Iglesias. Segundo, CTLM provee entrenamiento para los sínodos, congregaciones y pastores/diáconos de la IELA (ELCA) que quieren formar ministerios multiculturales efectivos, particularmente aquellos que buscan acompañar a ministerios Latinos. Para hacer este trabajo, CTML ofrece sesiones de entrenamiento en forma virtual y en persona para individuos y grupos pequeños de las congregaciones, aparte de facilitar grupos de cohortes para tener apoyo continuo y educación. En corto, el Centro Teológico Luterano Multicultural existe para proveer educación y apoyo para nuevos y existentes líderes Latinos, ambos laicos y ordenados, comunidades de adoración, y proveer entrenamiento para las congregaciones, pastores y personal de los sínodos de la IELA (ELCA) que quieran formar ministerios multiculturales efectivos.

El Seminario Wartburg en la actualidad tiene programas que pueden continuar con el trabajo que LSPS realizó por décadas, incluyendo programas a distancia de Maestrías en Divinidad y el programa TEEM basado en competencias tanto en Inglés como en Español (Caminemos Juntos). Ésto permitirá al Centro Teológico Luterano Multicultural enfocarse en otras actividades que son más específicas para las comunidades Latinas y también para congregaciones que quieren volverse más diversas. Ésta nueva iniciativa, continúa y expande el compromiso que Wartburg ha tenido por mucho tiempo con los ministerios y líderes Latinos. Continuamos valorando grandemente a todos los que han apoyado a LSPS através del tiempo, incluyendo los tres Sínodos de Texas, los cuales han sido excelentes compañeros de trabajo por décadas.

Learning For Life – Seminary for Everyone

Wartburg Theological Seminary is committed to the formation of leaders in Christ's church. Learning for Life includes all continuing education that Wartburg provides and/or facilitates, primarily but not exclusively for pastors and deacons in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Learning for Life engages alumni and other rostered leaders in collaborative, critical theological reflection on issues facing them as they serve in congregations and other ministry settings and provides a variety of events designed to build community and provide spiritual and educational renewal for church leaders.

Campus Community and Seminary Life

Dubuque

Wartburg Seminary is located in the city of Dubuque, Iowa, known as the Masterpiece on the Mississippi. Situated on bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River at the junction of Iowa, Wisconsin, and Illinois, Dubuque's nearly 60,000 inhabitants enjoy an area of great natural beauty. The city has a strong, diverse economy; quality, livable neighborhoods; an abundance of fun activities and events; good education opportunities for students and their families; and many outdoors activities in which to participate. The daily tempo for living is relaxed and accessible. Cultural life is enhanced by the events scheduled at the four local colleges, a vibrant downtown cultural life, and a beautiful park system.

Worship

Life on Wartburg's campus is grounded in the sacred space of the castle. Here, students meet for collaboration, spend time in the library, attend classes, and worship in the chapel. Services of worship are conducted in Loehle Chapel each morning at 10:30 a.m. on all days that classes are in session. Eucharist is celebrated every Wednesday. Several of the services each week include preaching by faculty and final-year students. Opportunities are also provided for the celebration of evening prayer and compline. The Dean of the Chapel oversees the liturgical life of the seminary with the assistance of the cantor, student chapel staff, and student worship planning groups led by faculty and staff. Off-campus students participate in chapel services through Zoom web conferencing, and there are periodic opportunities for live streaming of worship to the broader community.

Wartburg Association of Students (WAS)

Students are organized to exercise their voice in matters of student concern and to help shape the culture and community of the entire Wartburg Seminary community. WAS leaders are elected by the student body on an annual basis. Student leaders include class leadership and representatives on student committees and faculty committees. The three student committees of WAS are Global Advocacy, Social Activities, and a Sustainability Task Force. The Global Advocacy Committee (GAC) affirms in its activities the value and interconnectedness of all peoples with the whole creation. The Social Activities Committee (SAC) is responsible for organizing several occasions for students, faculty, staff, and their families to enhance the quality of community life. The Sustainability Task Force (STF) provides education, consultation, and activities related to the mission of fostering sustainable living practices for the Wartburg community and its ministry.

Fellowship of Wartburg Spouses

FWS provides support, services, programs, and social activities for the spouses of students. The spectrum of FWS is broad and activities vary yearly according to interests.

Faculty-Student Groups

Faculty members are assigned advisees, for whom they are responsible as academic advisor. In addition to one-on-one advising, many advisors organize a group meeting when time permits and students are available to gather together, such as during the fall and spring Prolog Weeks.

Informal Support Groups

Other more informal support groups include the various groups that form independently to address particular areas of concern or interest. Groups meet for prayer, common devotional life, meditation, text study, discernment, fellowship, and study groups. The seminary emphasizes the need for individuals to seek out ways to best meet their individual needs.

Lectureships and Forums

Well-known theologians are invited each year to Wartburg Seminary (and the nearby University of Dubuque Theological Seminary). Forums and convocations involving faculty and students focus on subjects of current interest.

Fine Arts

A choir is open to all students and spouses interested in singing sacred music from around the world. The choir and a custom built Dobson pipe organ make important contributions to the seminary's worship and musical life. Students and spouses who play musical instruments, both individually and in ensemble, also contribute to worship and community life.

Social Events

There are community-wide gatherings in each Prolog Week at the beginning of the fall and spring semester. Some ongoing annual events sponsored by the social activities committee include the Coffee House/Talent Show, Campus Cleanup and Texas BBQ, and Oktoberfest.

Athletics

A small fitness center on campus with athletic equipment provides opportunity for exercise. Volleyball, basketball, softball, cricket, dodgeball, ultimate Frisbee, and soccer are played on the campus and in the Dubuque community. Dubuque offers area recreational possibilities that include tennis, golf, downhill skiing, and a nearby YMCA. Children are invited to use the Kindercastle, a playground built for them on campus.

Food Pantry

Wartburg Seminary maintains a food pantry on the seminary campus to aid families on campus and in Dubuque in access to affordable food. This food pantry works in conjunction with the Dubuque Food Pantry to maintain access to resources to share.

Sources of Information about Seminary Life

Life Together, a printed publication for Wartburg friends and alums, is produced three times a year with seminary news. The eLife Together newsletter is distributed monthly to subscribers with information of interest for friends and alums. The Student and Community Life Handbook contains information on community and academic life and is made available each year to incoming students. The MyWTS web portal and the Wartburg Seminary website provide information on an ongoing basis.

Tuition and Fees 2023-2024

Tuition and fees are updated annually (beginning with July 1 each year), and are shown here for illustrative purposes only for the year indicated, subject to change. See the webpage, "Funding your Education" (<https://www.wartburgseminary.edu/funding-your-education/>) on the seminary website for the official statement of current tuition and fees.

1) Tuition and Fees for Primarily Masters-level Graduate Students:

Full Time Degree Students (9.0 or more credits per semester)

Transcript fee, each copy	$25

Transcripts needed during the course of completing a degree or program of study, such as for candidacy or scholarship purposes, are normally not billed a transcript fee.

Each graduate will normally be allowed to request one transcript at the time of graduation at no cost. Before a transcript can be issued at time of graduation or withdrawal, accounts must be cleared by the Business Office or arrangements made for payment of balance. This fee is for additional transcripts requested after leaving the seminary.

Student Housing & Campus Services

Food Service

During the academic year, meals in the form of breakfast and lunch are available five days a week through the campus Refectory at ala carte rates. No evening or weekend meals are offered, except on special occasions.

Student Housing in the Residence Hall

Rooms in the residence hall are available for 44 single and unaccompanied students as private rooms that each include a private bath. Furnishings include dresser, bed, bookcase, desk, and chair. There are a limited number of larger rooms that now also include a small kitchenette to form a studio room. In other rooms, space is available for a small refrigerator and microwave supplied by the student. All rooms are wired for internet connection, as well as the seminary WiFi covering the entire building. The rooms vary in size (165 to 391 sq. ft.) and in floor layout. A couple of rooms include features for mobility-limited accessibility. The basement of the Residence Hall provides a shared kitchen, laundry facilities, and a shared student lounge space. Students must apply through the Business Office to request housing in the Residence Hall.

Student Housing in Single and Duplex Homes

The seminary has available housing for students who have families with children, as well as for small groups of same-gendered students, in the form of single-family houses and multi-story duplex townhouses. This housing is part of the connected seminary campus property, just a short walk from the main classroom and administrative buildings, and is served by roadways marked as private. The size and features of these homes are summarized below. Some of the units have been temporarily configured as “airbnb” guest housing units for small groups of students on campus for such times as Prolog Week (at the start of each fall and spring semester) or for other campus events. Students must apply through the Business Office to request housing in either a Blair Court or Denver Court housing option.

Summary of Student Housing Options

Housing	Units	Bedrooms.	Baths	Sq. Ft.
Blair Court Houses: Basement, laundry hookups, single car garages, walk out basement	#1-#6	2	1	725
Blair Court Houses: Basement, laundry hookups, single car garages	#7-#9	2	1	725
Denver Court Townhouses: Basement, laundry hookups, dishwashers	16	3	2	1200
Residence Hall Rooms/Suites: Laundry hookups, (electric and gas), AC	44	1	1	165-325

Pet Policy

The pet policy is very strict. A limited number of pets (2 cats or 1 dog) are allowed only in designated houses. A nonrefundable pet fee for each pet will be added to the monthly rent. A detailed pet policy document is available in the Student and Community Life Handbook or from the Business Office.

Payment Policy

All charges and fees that are due must be paid in full at the time of registration for each term, or a deferred payment program approved by the Vice President of Finance and Operations. In cases where payment is delayed, an interest charge may be assessed. It is required that all accounts be paid in full prior to graduation.

Refunds

The Wartburg Seminary policy for the refund and repayment of institutional and federal (Title IV) funds follows the federal financial aid refund policy for both institutional and Title IV funds. This refund and repayment policy is stated in the Student and Community Life Handbook and covers leave of absence as well as withdrawal.

Student Health Insurance

Seminarian health insurance coverage is mandatory for all full-time students at all of the ELCA seminaries. If you do not have health coverage, you must enroll in a plan. Please see the “Health Insurance” section in the latest edition of the Student and Community Life Handbook at <https://www.wartburgseminary.edu/> for recent information on where to find options for purchasing your own health insurance.

Financial Aid

Wartburg Seminary recognizes the cost of preparing for service in the Church can seem overwhelming. Therefore, we are committed to assisting, advocating for, and accompanying students as they steward financial resources and support throughout seminary. Our Financial Aid Office, in cooperation with our Development and Admissions Offices, works to provide a variety of grants, scholarships, and loans for students in their educational preparation for ministry leadership in the ELCA.

Each year, our Development Office raises approximately $800,000 for financial aid to offset the cost of tuition for the majority of our students.

Renewable Scholarships

Students are selected for renewable scholarships based on passion for ministry, along with past academic performance, application materials, references, proven leadership, and need.

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Through the generous giving of faithful people, our church is able to subsidize the cost of theological education at all ELCA seminaries. Recognizing the growing gap between the rising costs of theological education and the income potential of church leaders, the ELCA has established the Fund for Leaders (FFL), the goal of which is to provide full-tuition scholarships for every seminary student. At this time, FLM full-tuition scholarships are awarded to a limited number of seminary students who have demonstrated academic and leadership abilities through an application process. Find information here: <https://www.elca.org/Our-Work/Leadership/ELCA-Fund-for-Leaders> .

Congregations and Synods

Often a congregation or synod with which a student is affiliated will offer financial assistance. It is important for you to talk with your pastor, congregational council, and synod candidacy committee about what financial assistance they are able to offer.

Outside Scholarships and Grants

The Financial Aid Office has created an online document with scholarship resources offered by congregations, foundations, trusts, and organizations. This scholarship list can be downloaded from the Scholarship Opportunities page on our website.

Employment

Wartburg offers a variety of on-campus employment for students. Interested individuals may inquire about potential employment with the Human Resources Office at (563) 589-0217.

Loans

Students may be eligible for institutional and federal loans.

Eligibility

All full-time students enrolled in a degree program and in good academic standing are eligible to apply for financial aid. Annually, students must complete the Wartburg Seminary Financial Aid Annual Eligibility Form to be considered for aid. Students who plan to borrow a Federal student loan must also complete Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for aid. Current and incoming students may request financial aid and scholarship information at any time by contacting the Financial Aid Office, (563) 589-0332, or by visiting Financial Aid at mywts.wartburgseminary.edu. Further details regarding financial aid are published in the Student and Community Life Handbook, also found at www.wartburgseminary.edu.

Veterans – VA Education Benefits & Policies

Wartburg Seminary is an on-going participant in the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) programs for educational benefits. We are currently authorized to certify enrollment for students completing one of our major degree programs offered through the Dubuque campus (including the Master of Divinity, Master of Arts, and Masters of Arts in Diaconal Ministry degree program), including eligible recipients of Chapters 30, 32, 33 (also known as Post-9/11), 35, and 36. We have also previously worked with students eligible through the VA Chapter 31 (Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, VR&E) program. Wartburg Theological Seminary is not, however, a participating Yellow-Ribbon School under Chapter 33 (Post-9/11).

Further, pursuant to the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018, Wartburg Seminary adopted the following policy in August 2019:

To refrain from imposing penalties upon eligible education students due to the delayed disbursement of allowable payments by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), including: 1) the assessment of late fees; 2) the denial of access to classes; 3) the denial of access to libraries or other institutional facilities; or 4) the requirement that a VA Chapter 31 or Chapter 33 recipient borrow additional funds to cover the individual's VA-covered financial obligations to the seminary while waiting for Federal funds to be paid. (Note: the text presented here has been modified to remove references to a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.)

The seminary's Registrar is the School Certifying Official for our participation in the VA education programs and is your school's contact with other VA offices and campus information. The seminary's participation is authorized through the Iowa Department of Education and its military education programs office as the VA-designated State Authorizing Agency.

Students who are eligible for VA education benefits and who wish to use them toward their Wartburg Seminary education should contact the seminary Registrar as soon as you are admitted. Prior to receiving benefits for your education through Wartburg Seminary, you will need to provide the Registrar's Office with the appropriate up-to-date VA-issued Letter of Eligibility that indicates your eligible benefit, including the specific chapter program you are eligible under and the number of months and days of benefit you have remaining. The Registrar will discuss with you the best plan for the academic terms in our program to certify enrollment in order that you may utilize your benefits within the rules and regulations of the VA programs. The Registrar will then confirm with you each academic term prior to submitting the enrollment verification to make sure that claiming your benefit that academic term is still your intent.

The student needs to be aware that Wartburg Seminary can only verify enrollment for those courses in academic terms that are actually taught by Wartburg Seminary instructors under our oversight. This means that we are unable to verify enrollment for most Clinical Pastoral Education units or for internships, as neither are courses that we directly teach. The student further needs to be aware that certain VA chapter programs require the Registrar to report tuition and fees billed, and that from those amounts will be subtracted any scholarship or grant amount you are receiving in each academic term that are specifically earmarked (as verified by the seminary financial aid office) as directed to paying for tuition and fees, as VA program regulations do not allow for the double payment on the same amounts of billed tuition and fees. Further, for off-campus Distance Learning (DL) and Collaborative Learning (CL) students, your enrollment verification will also note the number of credits being completed from a distance, which in turn may affect (depending on your chapter program) the eligible monthly housing allowance. Note: In guidance (in August 2019) from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs regarding "hybrid" teaching, which is what the Wartburg programs are considered because of our required on-campus attendance during our semester Prolog Weeks by most students, changes were introduced in how the housing allowance is calculated, with most full-time students now having their housing rate based on Dubuque as the locality, instead of the calculated average national housing allowance (as would otherwise be applied as the locality for distance education).

For students completing education under the VA education programs, all normal institutional policies regarding satisfactory academic progress, minimum grade expectations, academic probation, conduct, and attendance apply to these students in the same manner as all students in degree programs. Those policies are explained elsewhere in this catalog and in much further detail in the separate Student & Community Life Handbook. All students receiving VA education benefits must remain in good standing and be making satisfactory progress in order to receive benefit payments, with the VA being notified if the student's condition changes. In addition to these basic policies, the VA further restricts students receiving educational benefits to only allow changing their educational program objective at most one time in their course of study, should that be necessary, and still remain eligible to continue receiving benefits. Further, should a student need to discontinue education for unsatisfactory conduct or progress, there are further restrictions laid out in VA policy that limit the conditions of returning to study (i.e., reinstatement), should they be met, including losing the ability to change degree objectives.

Other military education programs

Wartburg Theological Seminary currently does not participate in any other U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) military education programs. We therefore cannot certify students who wish to earn credits and receive tuition assistance (TA) through GoArmyEd or the other military service educational programs.

This page was updated on September 20, 2024. For more information about education benefits offered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, please see their official U.S. government web site at <https://www.va.gov/education/> ..

Admissions and Candidacy

Admissions Process

All application materials are online:
www.wartburgseminary.edu

References will receive an email to fill out an electronic form that will come directly to/from Wartburg Theological Seminary. At time of application, the applicant should have consent from all of their references to provide Wartburg with each person's email address for this form to be emailed.

If you have questions about your application contact us directly:

Admissions Office

Master of Divinity and Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry Admissions Requirements

- 1) The completed application form
- 2) Autobiography that is 4-7 pages, typewritten and double-spaced.
Please note that you may utilize your candidacy essay in lieu of writing an additional essay for the admissions committee, however the following points must be addressed:
 - a. Events, circumstances, and persons in your life that have affected your faith and sense of call.
 - b. Your family of origin and how it has shaped who you are.
 - c. Your current life situation (your physical, spiritual, emotional, and financial health).
 - d. How others have encouraged you to explore theological study and/or the possibility of a church vocation which reflects on your current understanding of the ministry to which you feel called.
 - e. Assess your strengths, weaknesses, gifts, convictions, and concerns related to ministry.
- 3) Completed reference form sent from Wartburg to:
 - a. Your Pastor (not a family member)
 - b. A lay member of your congregation
 - c. Faculty member or employer (If you have been out of school for an extended period of time, enter the name of a person who is acquainted with your academic ability and/or professional competency.)
- 4) The academic requirement for admission is a Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent from an institution accredited by a United States agency recognized by the Council of Higher Education Accreditation. (If you do not meet this requirement, see the Additional Admission Requirements section below for students without a bachelors degree, its equivalent, or having a degree from a non-accredited school.)
- 5) A Cumulative GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale, documented by official transcripts sent directly to the Admissions Office from the institution (as electronic or mailed copy). Including:
 - Official transcripts for all post high school academic work, sent directly from each institution
 - Candidates who are currently in an undergraduate program may submit in progress official transcripts to be used as a place holder until graduated.
 - It is the student's responsibility to ensure that final transcripts with degree conferred date are sent to Wartburg Theological Seminary.
- 6) An English language proficiency test is required for all master degree students for whom English is not their first language. A score of 79 for the Internet-based TOEFL test, or its equivalent, is required. Exceptions may be made for those who have completed a previous degree, in English, in the United States.

Students applying to the Master of Divinity (MDiv) and Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry (MADM) programs must also be in a candidacy process according to the church body they are preparing to serve through rostered ministry. (Please see additional requirements under the Candidacy section below.)

Additional Admission Requirements for MDiv and MADM applicants without a Bachelors degree or having a degree from a non-accredited school

"The school admits students to master's degrees who have an accredited baccalaureate degree or its educational equivalent and meet any other requirements specified for that master's degree. Students without an accredited baccalaureate degree or its equivalent may be admitted to a master's degree if the school documents through rigorous means that those students are prepared to do master's-level work." (ATS Standard 7.4).

Wartburg reserves the right to consider Master of Divinity and Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry applicants who have completed a significant number of credit hours of undergraduate work (normally 72 credit hours) or who have demonstrated, through other work and life experiences, academic readiness for graduate-level course work.

To assist the Admissions Committee in determining their academic readiness, it may be required that the applicant provide supplemental writing materials to their admissions application. This will be communicated to the applicant by the Director of Admissions if necessary.

Master of Arts Admissions Requirements

- 1) Application to the Master of Arts Degree Program
- 2) An autobiography of 4 to 7 pages, typewritten and double-spaced that includes:
 - a. Your journey to this moment of applying for seminary admission
 - b. Your interest in Wartburg Seminary
 - c. How the Master of Arts degree will serve your vocational goals
- 3) References from the following three people:
 - a. Academic reference
 - b. Employer (current or past) reference
 - c. Additional employer or pastoral reference
- 4) Official transcripts for all post high school academic work, sent directly from each institution.
- 5) The academic requirement for admission is the Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent from an institution accredited by a United States agency recognized by the Council of Higher Education Accreditation.
- 6) A Cumulative GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale, documented by official transcripts.
- 7) An English language proficiency test is required for all master degree students for whom English is not their first language. A score of 79 for the Internet-based TOEFL test, or its equivalent, is required. Exceptions may be made for those who have completed a previous degree, in English, in the United States.

Discovery (Non-Degree) Students

Discovery students are those who are not in a degree program, but desire or need to complete Masters-level graduate coursework.

These students fit one of the following categories:

- 1) International students admitted to the seminary who have been selected by their home institutions to come for a period of study.
- 2) Students who receive a Master of Divinity degree at a non-Lutheran seminary and need to fulfill ELCA ordination requirements (Lutheran Leadership & Formation Students)
- 3) Students who need to fulfill a requirement, either for a degree at another institution or for their synod.
- 4) Students who take occasional courses or who are discerning rostered ministry.

These stipulations apply to Discovery students:

- Discovery students are not eligible for financial aid.
- Full-time Discovery students are normally eligible to live in student housing.

Application Requirements for Discovery students:

1. The completed Discovery application form.
2. Official transcripts for all post high school academic work, sent directly from each institution.

Graduate Level Writing Prerequisite

Students are expected to be able to write at graduate degree level. Wartburg Seminary offers writing assistance through the library for those in need of assistance in meeting this expectation. Degree-seeking and non-degree students typically complete a writing assessment during the first week of starting coursework at Wartburg Seminary. These essays are reviewed by faculty to determine who would benefit from further writing assistance.

Switching Degree Programs, Pathways or Rosters

A student wishing to switch degree programs needs to contact their academic advisor and complete a “change of degree form.” Upon entrance into a different degree program, the student will work with their academic advisor to evaluate credits applying to the new degree (with the degree requirements as defined in the seminary catalog that pertains at the time of entering the new degree program being the expected degree program requirements). ELCA students wishing to change candidacy rosters need to contact their candidacy committee and their academic advisor to complete the change of degree/pathway/roster form.

Entering Wartburg with Previous Masters-level credits or as a Transfer Student

A person with a previous Masters degree and/or Master level coursework from another ATS accredited theological school may submit their official transcripts to be analyzed by the Academic Dean to determine if advanced standing through transfer credits will be granted.

Transfer students consult initially with the admissions office about their prior work. The Registrar will identify the number of transferable credits. The Academic Dean and Registrar, with faculty consultation when appropriate, will determine which Wartburg program requirements have been met. In consultation with the faculty advisor and Registrar, the student should map out a program that satisfies the remaining requirements.

Candidacy

Students in our Master of Divinity or our Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry degrees must be entranced into the ELCA candidacy process by the end of their first semester of study. For those in a different denominational body other than the ELCA, an equivalent notice or letter must be written and submitted by their governing church body by the end of the first semester of study.

ELCA Candidacy Process

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America has two distinct rostered ministries:

- Ministers of Word and Sacrament (pastors)
- Ministers of Word and Service (deacons)

Candidacy is the church wide process of discernment, preparation and formation leading to rostered ministry. The process engages candidate, congregation, synod, seminary and the ELCA candidacy process in evaluation, theological education and practical preparation.

All potential candidates are strongly encouraged to begin the candidacy process at least one full year prior to beginning theological education. An applicant must be an active member of an ELCA congregation for a minimum of one year prior to candidacy entrance.

The steps to the candidacy process:

1. Entrance – Per the candidacy manual, an applicant must receive a positive entrance decision prior to completion of the first semester of seminary. Wartburg Seminary and the Admissions office are not responsible if a student begins a seminary degree program and then are not granted a positive entrance decision and are not allowed to continue coursework. The student is responsible for communicating with both seminary and candidacy and following through with the guidance and requirements of their candidacy committee.
2. Endorsement – Typically completed halfway through a student’s seminary program.
3. Approval – Approval normally occurs during the final year of study and indicates the church’s confidence that the candidate is ready to begin service in one of the rostered ministries of the ELCA.
4. Assignment - Final-year students who are approved for call in the ELCA are shepherded to ordination and their first church or service by their geographic home synod of candidacy. The assignment process is predicated upon the needs of the church and also takes very seriously the gifts and ministry hopes of the candidates.

For complete information and explanations of the ELCA rostered ministries and the candidacy process, please see the current candidacy information provided on the ELCA website, <http://www.elca.org/>. Wartburg Theological Seminary’s Director of Community Life and Candidacy and the student’s academic advisor are resources through the candidacy process.

Process toward Rostered Ministry

At significant points in a student's preparation for ministry in the ELCA, the appropriate synod, and the seminary engage with the student in evaluation as outlined above. The purpose of these evaluation processes is to encourage students, to raise issues with any student whose progress is hindered, or to dismiss students whose work or conduct make it apparent that they will not be able to meet the church's expectations. For students preparing for ministry in a church other than the ELCA, the seminary will engage with these students in an appropriate evaluation with the sponsoring denomination.

When issues are raised with students or when students are dismissed, the concerns may include: inadequate academic performance; lack of professional skills appropriate to the ministries for which they are preparing; conduct which the church judges unbecoming a person preparing for, or engaging in, rostered ministry. Basic documents for evaluation are the Endorsement Essay, CPE evaluation, internship reports, the Approval Essay, and the ELCA's Candidacy Manual and other guiding documents.

Additional evaluations during one's seminary career may be conducted either by the seminary or by the synodical or multi-synodical candidacy committee if there are sufficient concerns to warrant such actions.

Lutheran Learning and Formation/Affiliated Students/Lutheran Students Attending Non-ELCA Seminaries

Wartburg Seminary welcomes students who are required by the candidacy process to enroll in courses related to Lutheran Learning and Formation at an ELCA seminary to apply as a Discovery student and affiliate with Wartburg Seminary. Such students are those pursuing theological studies at institutions other than those of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and seeking ordination in the ELCA.

It is to the student's advantage to start the candidacy process upon enrolling in a non-ELCA seminary or divinity school. Affiliation with an ELCA seminary should take place during the first year of study. A positive entrance decision by a candidacy committee is required in order to be affiliated with an ELCA seminary. More information is available from the Admissions Office and the appropriate candidacy committee. The current ELCA affiliation fee (one-time, which is paid to the affiliated seminary) is listed with tuition and fees. The seminary will work with each student and candidacy committee in selecting the courses most needed (which usually consists of a minimum of six requirements) and in obtaining a suitable internship in an ELCA congregation.

Affiliated students who complete their post-MDiv coursework and internship for ELCA candidacy through Wartburg Theological Seminary as Discovery students will be recognized at the conclusion of their program with a Certificate for Lutheran Learning & Formation. This recognition takes place at the annual May commencement.

Beginning in Fall 2023, Lutheran Learning and Formation students also have the option to affiliate with Wartburg Seminary by applying to and completing Wartburg's Master of Arts degree program. This degree is 30 credits and can be completed within one year, with courses focused on Lutheran studies (as determined to be needed as an affiliate student), plus adds some additional coursework that meets requirements of the MA degree program. Students who choose this option are eligible for financial aid from Wartburg during the academic terms they are completing coursework. For students who elect this option, the internship requirement still remains as a candidacy requirement that is completed outside of the MA degree program.

For information and necessary forms please see our website: www.wartburgseminary.edu

Degree Programs

Summary of Our Degree Programs

For complete information on the following degree programs offered by Wartburg Theological Seminary, see the appropriate sections on each degree program later in this catalog

Master of Divinity (MDiv)

The Master of Divinity degree program is for students interested in preparing for ministry as an ordained pastor.

There are three pathway options to complete the MDiv degree: Residential Program, Distance Learning Program, and the Collaborative Learning Program.

The option to include a concentration in Hispanic Ministry, in Small Town and Rural Ministry, or in Mission Development/Redevelopment is available.

Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry (MADM)

The Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry is a comprehensive theological and practical course of study for those preparing for rostered ministry as a deacon, as well as for those desiring formation for other forms of Christian service.

There are three options to complete the MA in Diaconal Ministry degree: Residential Program, Distance Learning Program, and the Collaborative Learning Program.

The Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry program offers the option of concentrations upon the approval of the faculty, insofar as diaconal ministry is already a specialization.

Master of Arts (MA)

The Master of Arts degree program is designed for students interested in theological study at the graduate level for further graduate study, church leadership, Christian service in society, or personal growth.

There are two options to complete the MA degree: Residential Program and Distance Learning Program.

All three degree programs are accredited. Graduation requirements for each student are normally based on the catalog current for the year the student enters their degree program.

Academic Features

Four-One-Four and Course Lengths

The academic year follows the 4-1-4 academic calendar and consists of a fall semester of four months (September-December), a one-month interim (January or “J-Term”), and a spring semester of four months (February-May). Students begin the academic year with an opening worship on Labor Day, followed by a required one-week intensive called Prolog Week, whereby all students – residential, collaborative, and distance - come together to participate in the first classroom meeting hours of each of their major courses. The spring semester also begins with a Prolog Week.

Wartburg Seminary offers a limited number of summer courses in both the Masters and various certificate programs. Most students use one summer term to complete a unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE), to begin or finish their internship, or to complete fieldwork or an independent study project, as may be required for a specific degree program.

Three Pathways – Residential, Distance, and Collaborative

Wartburg, through its hybrid curriculum, offers three pathways of learning: Residential (RL), Distance Learning (DL), and Collaborative Learning (CL).

Residential Learning (RL) is for students who attend classes face-to-face on the Dubuque campus.

The Distance Learning (DL) program provides an option for students who are unable to attend classes in person. Students complete the same coursework as the residential students by either joining the course synchronously with web cameras, or asynchronously by watching recorded lectures later and interacting with each other through our campus learning management system.

A variation of the distance learning program within the Master of Divinity and MA in Diaconal Ministry degree programs is Collaborative Learning (CL). The “Collaborative Learner” is a specific category of student where the student is formally approved by the seminary, by the student’s home ELCA synod (or appropriate non-ELCA denominational adjudicatory), and by the ELCA synod providing a congregational site. CL students serve concurrently in part-time congregational ministry (and upon approval, as possibly a synodically authorized minister) under the supervision of a supervisor and mentor. For CL students, coursework is distributed over all the entire years of study, with a specific time period designated within for the evaluation process of internship.

Masters students in the Distance Learning and Collaborative Learning programs normally should not work more than 20 hours per week in outside employment or half time in their ministry setting

January Interim

The interim month of January (“J-Term”) provides students with the opportunity to take an intensive 2-week course, including travel and cultural immersion opportunities. MDiv students are normally required to complete 3 interims, with MA in Diaconal Ministry students completing 2 interims and MA students completing just one interim. The Pastoral-Diaconal Practicum, a month spent in a parish working with a pastor and congregation, is offered for first year students who want to get an introduction to parish ministry or to explore specific settings and specializations. One interim is used by most students to complete their Cross-Cultural requirement for the MDiv and MA in Diaconal Ministry degree programs. Courses are also available at other ELCA/ELCIC Seminaries through an exchange arrangement.

Interim courses in the recent past have included:

- International Cross-Cultural Travel Trips to the Holy Land, Tanzania, Malaysia and Thailand
- Reformation and Holocaust Tour to Germany
- Rural J-Term immersion in Iowa and Nebraska
- Immersion and cross-cultural encounters at the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation (South Dakota)

Cross-Cultural Requirement for MDiv and MADM

The Cross-Cultural Requirement is a requirement for the MDiv and MA in Diaconal Ministry degree programs. It consists of a minimum of two credit hours in immersion (or immersion-like) experiences that bring students into a significant encounter with a different culture. Such encounters both enrich the students’ breadth of experience and provide an opportunity for them to reflect on their own culture.

Students consult with their faculty adviser to discern the kind of immersion appropriate to their prior experiences and readiness for future ministry. Most cross-cultural opportunities are already structured and available for enrollment during the January interim. Generous donors make it possible for students to receive a limited cross-cultural travel subsidy to support this requirement.

Independent Study

Students may arrange to take a particular course by means of a reading program upon the consent of the instructor. This arrangement does not apply to required courses or courses offered on an annual basis. The student must complete a “Contract for Independent Study” and register for the course at the Registrar’s office.

International Exchange Programs

The Wartburg Center for Global Theologies is committed to the global dimension of the church’s mission by bringing international faculty members from selected seminaries outside of northern American and western European settings to the Wartburg campus. Wartburg faculty members have in the past taught at the Martin Luther Seminary in Papua New Guinea and the Paulinum Seminary in Namibia and seminaries in other countries. In addition to welcoming students from around the world to its campus, the Center for Global Theologies also makes available opportunities for North American students to study and serve in other countries. For additional information on these exchange opportunities, contact the office of the Academic Dean.

Other International Theological Study Opportunities

Students have the opportunity to study for a term or a full academic year at a number of seminaries in partnership with Wartburg that have instruction in English, such as Tanzania, Namibia, Nigeria, Hong Kong, Singapore, and India. Studies in Europe are provided through relationships with two Lutheran theological seminaries: The Free Faculty of Theology of the Church of Norway in Oslo (Menighetsfakultet) and the Augustana Hochschule in Neuendettelsau, Germany. Significant scholarships, including room, board, or tuition may be available from the host institutions. Classes are in English, Norwegian, and German, with language training available by special arrangement. These opportunities are available to students who have completed at least one year of theological studies and received faculty approval.

International Internships

The seminary works with the Horizon International Internship Program of the ELCA to facilitate international internships. Internship placements require a separate application process and are made by the ELCA in locations like Germany, Brazil, Tanzania, Egypt, and other countries. Language training is required for some internship sites. Students who have completed CPE, two years of study, and who receive faculty and candidacy committee recommendation are eligible to apply. The WTS Contextual Education office will communicate application deadlines to students. You may also contact them with any questions.

Academic Policies:

Registration

Registration dates are indicated on the academic calendar. Deadlines apply for changing registration. Wartburg also has a policy regarding withdrawal from courses. Registration deadlines and withdrawal are discussed in the Student and Community Life Handbook. A fee may be charged for late registrations.

Degree students are normally expected to be continuously registered during the main academic year for Fall Semester, the January Interim, and Spring Semester. Degree students needing to interrupt their studies for a semester or a year need to apply for an academic Leave of Absence (see below). Discovery (non-degree) students should also file for a leave of absence if they are involved in a defined course of study (such as a Lutheran Learning and Formation student with identified requirements to fulfill) and need to interrupt their program.

Grades

Students in the MDiv and all MA degree programs may choose to be graded either by credit/no credit (CR/NC) or by letter grade on a course-by-course basis. Exceptions are explained in the Student and Community Life Handbook, and not all courses allow for the possibility of letter grading. The Student and Community Life Handbook contains a full explanation of the grading system and policies concerning probation and dismissal. All degree requirements and named courses must receive a passing grade of C- (Credit) or better to fulfill the degree requirement. All degree students must maintain a minimum cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.0 or higher (on a four-point scale) to remain a student in good academic standing. Students who fall below a GPA of 2.0 will be placed on academic probation for the following semester if they meet all criteria as explained in the Student and Community Life Handbook, resulting in their being a student no longer making satisfactory academic progress and subject to further restrictions. Students who fail individual courses or do not achieve the minimum passing grade those courses, but who retain a GPA at or above 2.0, will typically be issued an academic warning by the Registrar as notification of a course requirement(s) needing to be repeated and/or further attention needed to keep out of further academic jeopardy.

Auditing

A student may audit a course upon consent of the instructor. Audits will be recorded on the transcript, providing the student attends the class. An auditor is not evaluated by the instructor and will not receive credit for the course, and the course will only be listed on a transcript if fully attended to the instructor's expectation. Auditing a course will result in an additional tuition charge for those registered as part-time students.

Course Withdrawals, Course Extensions, Leaves of Absence, or Seminary Withdrawal

The following was adopted in May 2023, and pertains to all course withdrawals, leave of absence requests, and seminary withdrawals for degree-seeking graduate students and other non-degree graduate students (i.e., Discovery students).

- A. Course Drop/Add: "Course withdrawal" refers to the student-led action of dropping one or more courses, but not the student's entire registration, for the current academic term.
 - a. Courses may be dropped prior to the drop/add deadline, which is the close of business on the third Monday following the start of the semester (i.e., the Monday at the start of the 4th week of the semester, where prolog week counts as week 1). Courses dropped on or before this deadline will NOT appear on the student's transcript. Requests for dropping courses prior to the drop/add deadline can be received by the registrar using either email or by using the official form process as described below and must include permission of the student's faculty advisor.
 - b. If a course is dropped after the term's drop/add deadline, the course remains on the student's transcript, with a W (withdrawn) grade. Course withdrawal requests after the drop/add deadline can only be done using the official course withdrawal form and process described below, including sign-off by the course instructor and the student's faculty advisor.

- C If a course is dropped after the end of the 9th week of the semester (last day to withdraw), a grade of F or NC (no credit) is given.

It is the student's responsibility to know deadline dates for course withdrawals and registration changes. The seminary bears no responsibility for refunds if a student fails to give timely notifications. Institutional aid may be partially or fully rescinded should you fall below 9.0 tuition-paid credit hours, dependent upon the date of change. See section 2.17.4 in the Student and Community Life Handbook for details.

All course withdrawals are considered official only when the registrar receives and acknowledges the request. Withdrawal from a course after the drop/add deadline requires submission to the registrar of a completed course withdrawal form, found on the student portal, from the student. Notifying only the course instructor, your faculty advisor, or any other person of your course withdrawal, but not the registrar, does not constitute withdrawal. Should the registrar not be available, submission of the completed form to the academic dean is acceptable. Failure to attend or participate in a registered course does not constitute officially withdrawing from the course.

Exceptions:

Courses that are taught as "intensives" later in the semester (and normally only for a week and shorter in duration) may be dropped up to the first day of that intensive course and still have its billing and appearance on a transcript adjusted. The student must provide the requested course withdrawal form to the registrar by this deadline.

January Interim courses can be dropped or added up to the first day of class.

Unforeseen circumstances such as long-term medical issues, a family emergency, or a call to active military duty, must be documented and considered unavoidable. Such an exception may be authorized by the academic dean through the approved leave of absence, or seminary withdrawal process (described in Section B below). Students are encouraged to seek a course extension if possible (see Section C below).

B. Seminary Leaves and Withdrawals:

- a. A "leave of absence" refers to the withdrawal from all courses in an ongoing academic term with the intent to continue seminary studies the following semester (or shortly thereafter). Leaves of absence are normally authorized by the faculty for a year at a time, with a limit of no more than two consecutive years taken for a leave without returning to studies, withdrawing from seminary, or being administratively dismissed.
- b. A "seminary withdrawal" is withdrawing from courses without the intent to return.

Online forms for submitting each request are on the student portal. The request for either must be made at the time of the leave or withdrawal and the last date of attendance must be noted. Either of these actions will result in all courses being assigned a grade of W (withdrawn) if requested after the normal drop/add deadline and prior to the close-of business on the Friday at the end of the 9th week of the semester. If requested after the end of the 9th week, courses will be assigned a grade of F or NC (no credit).

It is the student's responsibility to know deadline dates for registration changes and to inform the seminary of a complete withdrawal or leave of absence in a timely manner. The seminary bears no responsibility for refunds if a student fails to give timely notification. Institutional aid may be partially or fully rescinded dependent upon the date of change. Institutional or federal student loans, if borrowed, may be subject to partial or full return of funds, also dependent upon date of change. (See section 2.17.4 in the Student and Community Life Handbook for details.)

Unforeseen circumstances such as long-term medical issues, a family emergency, or a call to active military duty, must be documented and considered unavoidable. Such an exception may be authorized by the academic dean through the approved leave of absence or seminary withdrawal process.

- C. Coursework Deadlines and Extensions. All coursework is due to the course instructors by the last day of the semester. All course extensions requests must be submitted and approved on or before the last day of the semester (or January term or summer session) according to instructions issued by the registrar.

Learning Disabilities Accommodations

Any student who feels they may need an accommodation based on the effect of a disability should contact the seminary's ADA Compliance Officer, Academic Dean Cheryl Peterson, cmpeterson@wartburgseminary.edu. More information can be found in the Student and Community Life Handbook.

Master of Divinity Degree Program (MDiv)

Wartburg Theological Seminary is an educational community centered in worship, which sets the study of the Christian message in the legacy of the church's heritage and in the global and social context of today's world. The Master of Divinity (MDiv) program, a four-year degree program, when taken full time, is a focal point of the faculty's mission in preparing persons for effective leadership in the ordained ministry of the church. The Mission Statement of WTS and Twelve Pastoral-Diaconal Practices focus all curriculum outcomes on the church's mission to the world. We aim to form pastors who can "interpret, proclaim and live the gospel of Jesus Christ for a world created for communion with God and in need of personal and social healing." (from Wartburg's Mission Statement). Wartburg's program is organized under three divisions: Biblical Studies (BI), History and Theology (HT), and Ministry (MN). There are also Integrative (IN) courses team-taught by professors of the three divisions.

One MDiv Degree Program – Three Pathways – Two Primary Schedules

We offer the MDiv curriculum in three pathways. Each student is admitted into the degree program and chooses the pathway based on their situation. Each student completes coursework under one of two basic patterns of course scheduling. Both course patterns include the same courses but vary between either a three year or four-year pattern for sequencing the coursework and how the internship requirement is met. Both scheduling patterns are considered as full-time study for completing the degree within four years.

The three pathways of students are the following:

- Residential Learners (RL) – The "Residential Learner" is the on-campus student (or commuter) who completes coursework in face-to-face classroom learning on campus in Dubuque.
- Distance Learners (DL) – The "Distance Learner" is the off-campus student who is studying from their home context and completing their courses from afar. It is expected that a distance learner, who may or may not be working part-time, can still sustain a course load equal to the residential learner, and that it is a matter of location and personal circumstances (due to work, family, or other reasons) that distinguishes a DL student from the RL student.
- Collaborative Learners (CL) – The "Collaborative Learner" is a specific category of student where the student is formally approved by the seminary, by the student's home ELCA synod (or other appropriate denominational adjudicatory), and by the ELCA synod providing a congregational site. CL students serve concurrently in part-time congregational ministry under supervision of a rostered leader and accompanied by a mentor. For CL students, coursework is distance over the entire four years of study and internship normally takes place during the fourth through sixth semesters, during which time the evaluation process is formalized.

Because of these differences, there are two different patterns of scheduled coursework identified for completion of the degree. Full-time Residential and Distance Learners will complete the Residential Learner/Distance Learner pattern for the degree, whereby internship has its own designated year (normally the third year) and the academic coursework is normally completed in three academic years. Collaborative Learners have a distinctive pattern that schedules courses over the entire four years, allowing time for their involvement in ministry concurrently with their entire period of study. Because of their common coursework schedule, RL, DL, and CL students can with permission move back and forth between residential, distance, and collaborative study in different years or semesters should that become necessary. See the curriculum grids below for the differences between the two academic patterns.

Please note that students in all three pathways (including DL and CL students) all expected to come to Dubuque for one week of residential course work at the start of each Fall and Spring Semester (what the seminary calls Prolog Weeks) during any semester that the student is completing major coursework.

Course Load

To be considered a full-time student (and therefore potentially eligible for all forms of financial aid), a student must take a minimum of nine (9) semester hours each term. (To qualify for financial aid, most scholarships or grants require that the 9 or more credits that constitute full-time status each semester consist of "tuition-billed coursework credits," of which internship or CPE credits do not count as they are not charged tuition.) The normal minimum course load needed for Residential and Distance Learners programs to complete the degree in four years is 12.5 credit hours in each fall and spring semester, plus 2 credit hours in each of the three required January interims. The normal minimum course load needed in the Collaborative Learner program to complete in four years is typically 9.5 hours in each of the fall and spring semesters (or 9 hours each in the two semesters that Spiritual Practices is not taken), plus 2 credit hours each in three January interims. These credit minimums do not include two distributional requirements or elective courses, and may not include all the courses taken for a concentration, which may be beyond these expected minimums. Permission from the Academic Dean is required for RL and DL students to take more than 15.5 semester hours of coursework in a semester, or for CL students to add more than a couple of coursework credits beyond 9.5 semester hours, especially in the semesters when a student's formal internship is being completed. Students completing CPE during coursework semesters are also expected to get permission, and possibly reduce their courseload, to see that all can be managed. RL and DL students completing the normal full-year internship also cannot take courses during the internship period except with permission of the Academic Dean, the Contextual Education Director, and the internship site supervisor.

Part-time study is possible and may become necessary for some students for a variety of reasons. Part-time study for WTS is defined as less than 9 semester hours in the fall or spring semester respectively (or less than 2 hours in the January interim). Part-time students (with 6 coursework credit hours or more) have access to Federal financial aid and to defer student loans. The student who becomes part-time should no longer expect that their MDiv degree can still be completed in the four years normally defined for the degree. Further, except for some distributional courses, most courses that meet degree requirements are only taught once each year, and therefore a part-time student may need to wait for a later academic year in order to fulfill a particular degree requirement, which can further delay completion of the degree.

Time Available to Complete the Degree

The MDiv degree normally must be completed within seven (7) calendar years of study from the oldest course to the most recent course, unless specific action is taken by the faculty to extend this duration for a student.

Students who have interrupted their theological education for seven or more years prior to re-entrance ordinarily will not receive credit for previous work unless specific action is taken by the faculty at the recommendation of the Academic Dean to extend this for a student.

MDiv Program Learning Outcomes

The following desired learning outcomes guide the Master of Divinity degree program:

1. Demonstrates clarity about the Gospel character of the Christian message in all dimensions of public leadership.
 - a. Understands the Gospel as true for one's life
 - b. Distinguishes the activity of the Word as Law and Gospel

 - b. Demonstrates awareness of the challenge and promise of cultural diversity
 - c. Engages multi-cultural issues and religious pluralism in a global context
 - d. Invests in deepening interactions with and deeper learning from other cultures and contexts

MDiv Curriculum Requirements

The Master of Divinity degree consists of a minimum of 116 semester hours, met by completing 83 hours of coursework (including three January interims), the equivalent of a twelve-month internship (27 hours), and one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (6 hours). Most requirements are met by specified courses that are taught once a year in the designated semester (either fall or spring).

MDiv Contextual Ministry Requirements

A. MDiv Fieldwork Placement Requirement

To broaden a student's perspectives beyond that of the classroom or one's own church, all MDiv students are required to complete two units of Fieldwork. Over the course of two semesters (usually in one's second year of seminary), students partner with community service organizations to serve the common good, engaging a minimum of thirty hours per semester (or a minimum of sixty hours for the full requirement) in service, practicing accompaniment and exploring bridge-building between church and community. Fieldwork is typically completed in service organizations, although service can also be offered in a congregation, parish, or other organized ministry. Collaborative Learning students are especially encouraged to engage in this requirement through opportunities available near to their ministry sites, with already established community partners. Fieldwork sites must be approved by the seminary's Contextual Education Office, and student activities must be documented by submitting a record each semester of the hours spent working with their fieldwork sites. These student logs must be signed by their site supervisor, attesting to the student's work at the site (with supervisors being encouraged to submit additional comments).

B. MDiv Clinical (CPE) Requirement

Wartburg Seminary is a member of the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE), which is the international professional agency for the certification of supervisors and accreditation of centers for clinical pastoral education since 1968. One unit of CPE is an ELCA and degree requirement. CPE provides hands-on practice in pastoral ministry in a clinical setting (hospital, nursing home, etc., under the direction of an accredited supervisor and with a cohort of student-peers.

Students can meet this requirement either through a 10-week, full-time unit in the summer, as an extended, part-time unit spread out over several months, or as an online unit. More information can be found at: <https://acpe.edu/education/cpe-students>.

C. MDiv Internship

A congregational internship, equivalent to one year of full-time supervised ministry, provides students a significant contextualized experience in ministry as a fundamental component of their theological education and is an ELCA and degree requirement. Internship normally takes place before the final academic year of the MDiv degree.

Prior to internship, the student normally is expected to be endorsed by a synodical candidacy committee, to have completed a unit of CPE, and to have fulfilled pre-internship curriculum requirements.

Concentrations

The MADM and MDiv degree programs offers the option of Concentrations as a means to develop specialization in an area of ministry. A concentration consists of a minimum of 10 credits in a specified area of emphasis. Currently we offer three concentrations with the MDiv degree:

Hispanic Ministry

Purpose: The Concentration in Hispanic Ministry builds competence for engaging in ministry with Latinx peoples and contexts. It introduces students to ministry in contexts with a Latinx focus and fosters intercultural competency.

Objectives:

1. To listen and relate to Latinx persons and communities.
2. To increase skills for intercultural ministry with Latinx people.
3. To engage and reflect on literature related to Hispanic ministry.
4. To network with those serving in ministry in Hispanic contexts.

Concentration Plan (MDiv and MADiac): The concentration provides an opportunity for students to enroll in a minimum of 10 credits focused on meeting concentration objectives. These may include:

1. Courses or independent studies during January term.
2. IN-4 (IN 344W, 3 cr) and IN-6 (IN 346W, 3 cr) with project focus on topics related to one or more of the concentration objectives.
3. Two semesters of fieldwork (1 cr and 1 cr) with particular attention to concentration objectives.

4. Elective courses designated as meeting the Hispanic Ministry concentration. This may include Spanish language courses.
 5. Courses offered through the Hispanic Summer Program: <https://hispanicsummerprogram.org/> Wartburg Theological Seminary is a supporting institution of the Hispanic Summer Program.
- In addition, students are encouraged to participate in trainings, guest presentations, extracurricular offerings, and other opportunities as they become available.

Small Town and Rural Ministry

Purpose: The Concentration in Rural Ministry provides an opportunity for students interested in providing leadership in small town and rural (STaR), including small member congregations, and to deepen their theological and practical imagination around these ministry settings.

Objectives:

1. Increase awareness of and ability to interpret the relationship between church and STaR contexts, and develop ecumenical, collaborative partnerships that serve the neighbor.
2. Understand the dynamics of STaR/small member congregations from a systems and sociological framework.
3. Acquire the biblical and theological foundations and leadership skills to assist STaR/small member congregations in exploring transformational change.
4. Develop a theological understanding of mission and practical leadership skills to help empower STaR/small member congregations for mission in their communities including their important role in ensuring global food security and addressing global climate change.

Concentration Plan (MDiv and MADM): Wartburg Theological Seminary's curriculum has been designed to form leaders for the complex challenges facing congregations. The concentration provides an opportunity for students to take that learning to a deeper level. Normally, the 10 credit requirements for the concentration include:

1. The Rural Immersion J-term course or a J-term independent study (2 cr).
2. IN-4 (IN 344W, 3 cr) and IN-6 (IN 346W, 3 cr) with project foci on topics focusing on one or more concentration objectives.
3. Two semesters of fieldwork (1 cr + 1 cr) with particular attention on concentration objectives OR rural ministry electives from the MN 200 or MN 300 series (2 cr).
4. Concentration students are encouraged to take additional rural ministry or related electives from the MN 200 or MN 300 series as available.

In addition, students are encouraged to participate in guest presentations as they become available and the annual rural ministry conference.

Mission Development and Redevelopment

Purpose: The Concentration in Mission Development provides an opportunity for students interested in providing leadership to creating new worshipping communities or redeveloping existing worshipping communities, and to deepen their theological and practical imagination around these unique ministry settings.

Objectives:

1. Deepen one's articulation of a theology of mission development and redevelopment rooted in the Triune God.
2. Cultivate a passion for collaborative, creative, and faithful leadership that bears witness to the mission of Jesus Christ in the world.
3. Increase awareness of and ability to interpret the relationship between church and context, and develop partnerships that serve the neighbor.
4. Create community centered in worship that forms disciples to do justice, love kindly, and walk humbly with God.

Concentration Plan (MDiv & MADM): Wartburg Theological Seminary's curriculum has been designed to form leaders for the complex challenges facing congregations. This concentration provides an opportunity for students to take that learning to a deeper level. The 10-credit requirements for the concentration include:

1. A J-term practicum or independent study (2 cr)
2. IN-4 (IN 344W, 3 cr) and IN-6 (IN 346W, 3 cr) with project foci on topics focusing on one or more concentration objectives
3. Two semesters of fieldwork (1 cr + 1 cr) with particular attention on concentration objectives OR electives (2 cr)
4. Concentration students are encouraged to take additional electives as available.

In addition, students are encouraged to participate in trainings, guest speaker lectures, and other events as they become available.

Please note:

Most concentrations also allow some flexibility in how assignments are completed in other courses. It is also possible in some cases to make arrangements, so that a student's internship site might provide experience in the student's area of a concentration.

Students should note that completing a concentration could involve coursework beyond the minimum degree requirements. The student in a concentration may need to take additional courses beyond the minimums in some semesters in order to meet the needs of both the degree and the concentration.

MDiv Thesis

Seniors may elect to write a thesis in meeting their graduation requirements upon approval by the faculty no later than the October faculty meeting. Interested students should contact their academic advisor (and copy the Academic Dean) as early as possible and prior to the fall semester of their final year. Those approved for completing a thesis will be also required to enroll in the fall semester IN 300W research seminar.

MDiv Graduation Requirements

The requirements of the Master of Divinity degree are:

- 1) The satisfactory completion of academic requirements, (including all named courses or their authorized equivalents, and distribution requirements) with a minimum of 116 semester hours (83 hours of academic coursework, 6 hours for one unit of CPE, together with 27 hours received at the completion of one year or equivalent of internship).
- 2) A minimum of one third of the recognized MDiv degree credits must be completed for this degree and consist of Wartburg Theological Seminary-taught coursework and Wartburg-supervised contextual ministry (i.e., a student's MDiv degree cannot consist entirely of credits transferred from institutions, consist of advanced standing, or overlap by more than two-thirds with other degrees previously earned through WTS).
- 3) A recommendation by the faculty to the Board of Directors and the Board's approval. A student must be in good standing with the business office, library, and financial aid office in order to receive a diploma.

Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry Degree Program (MADM)

Wartburg Theological Seminary is an educational community centered in worship, which sets the study of the Christian message in the legacy of the church's heritage and in the global and social context of today's world. The Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry (MA in Diaconal Ministry or MADM) degree program is aimed at students interested in service in the church as a deacon. The MA in Diaconal Ministry degree combines the academic requirements for diaconal ministry with courses that meet the fieldwork/internship requirements for candidacy as a deacon in the ELCA. The MA in Diaconal Ministry program aims at integrating skills for ministry with theological reflection. It is ideal for those candidates for church service who want to bridge a congregational or local church setting with the mission of the church in society.

Residential, Distance Learning, and Collaborative Learning Options

Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry students enroll as either a Residential Learner (RL), Distance Learner (DL), or Collaborative Learner (CL) depending on their needs. These categories of student are defined as follows:

- Residential Learners (RL) – The “Residential Learner” is the on-campus student (or commuter) who completes coursework primarily by face-to-face classroom learning on campus in Dubuque.
- Distance Learners (DL) – The “Distance Learner” is the off-campus student who is studying from their home context and completing their courses from afar. It is expected that a distance learner, who may or may not be working part-time, can still sustain a course load equal to the residential learner, and that it is a matter of location and personal circumstances (due to work, family, or other reasons) that distinguishes a DL student from the RL student.
- Collaborative Learners (CL) – The “Collaborative Learner” is a specific category of student where the student is formally approved by the seminary, by the student's home ELCA synod (or appropriate non-ELCA denominational adjudicatory), and by the ELCA synod providing a ministry site. CL students concurrently complete coursework and serve part-time in their ministry setting under the supervision of a mentor.

All the students, whether RL, DL, or CL, complete the same degree requirements and are in the same courses.

Course Load

To be considered a full-time student (and therefore potentially eligible for all forms of financial aid), a student must take a minimum of nine (9) semester hours each term. The normal minimum course load needed for students to complete the coursework for the degree in two years is 10.5 credit hours in each fall and spring semester, plus 2 credit hours in each of the two required January interims. These credit minimums do not include contextual ministry requirements for the MADM degree program and may not include all the courses taken for a concentration, which may be beyond these expected minimums. Permission from the Academic Dean is required for students to take more than 15.5 semester hours of coursework in a semester. Students completing CPE or their deacon internship during coursework semesters are also expected to get permission, and possibly reduce their courseload, to see that all can be managed.

Part-time study is possible and may become necessary for some students for a variety of reasons. Part-time study for WTS is defined as less than 9 semester hours in the fall or spring semester respectively (or less than 2 hours in the January interim). Part-time students (with 6 coursework credit hours or more) may have access to Federal financial aid and to defer student loans. The student who becomes part-time should no longer expect that their MADM degree can still be completed in the two years normally defined for the degree. Further, most courses that meet degree requirements are only taught once each year, and therefore a part-time student may need to wait for a later academic year in order to fulfill a particular degree requirement, which can further delay completion of the degree.

Time Available to Complete the Degree

The MA in Diaconal Ministry degree normally must be completed within five (5) calendar years of study from the oldest course to the most recent course, unless specific action is taken by the faculty to extend this duration for a student.

Students who have interrupted their theological education for seven or more years prior to re-entrance ordinarily will not receive credit for previous work unless specific action is taken by the faculty at the recommendation of the Academic Dean to extend this for a student.

MA in Diaconal Ministry Program Learning Outcomes

The following desired learning outcomes guide the Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry degree program:

1. Demonstrates clarity about the Gospel character of the Christian message in all dimensions of public leadership.

MA in Diaconal Ministry Curriculum Degree Requirements

The basic Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry degree is designed to meet the candidacy requirements for the leadership roster of Deacon in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), but can be adapted to meet requirements also for other denominations.

The degree requirements consist of a minimum of 64 semester hours, met by 46 credits of coursework and research, including two J-Term courses, plus 18 credits of internship and clinical pastoral education: Of the overall credits for the degree, 26 semester hours are specific to the MA in Diaconal Ministry degree. The degree requirements are itemized below.

A. MA in Diaconal Ministry Requirements Checklist Presented In Chart Format:

Each requirement is 3 semester hours, unless noted, and is usually met by a specified course. Each requirement has a number, and a shorthand title for the requirement. The actual course (or eligible courses) that fulfills a requirement may vary. The MA in Diaconal Ministry degree does require the completion of elective credits, which are normally focused toward a specialization.

Specialization Elective and other electives – 6 hours minimum

Courses chosen from among core courses in the disciplines or their distributional or elective offerings in the fall and spring semester that cover areas of specialty relating to your degree. Specialization electives could include courses in worship, preaching, and pastoral care, or coursework toward the mission development/redevelopment, rural ministry, youth and family ministry, or Hispanic ministry concentrations.

Degree Total = 64 semester hours minimum, plus possibly more credits depending on chosen for the specialization electives or if adding a concentration.

Deacon CPE and Internship

The contextual education components of the MA in Diaconal Ministry program are divided into two areas: (1) a unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at an ACPE-accredited site; and (2) a 1,000-hour Deacon Internship.

CPE provides hands-on practice in pastoral ministry in a clinical setting (hospital, nursing home, etc.) under the direction of an accredited supervisor and with a cohort of student-peers. Students can meet this requirement through a 10-week, full-time unit in the summer, or an extended, part-time unit spread out over several months, or an online unit. More information can be found at: <https://acpe.edu/education/cpe-students>.

The Deacon Internship provides opportunities for the student to demonstrate competence in the student's area(s) of specialization. Various contexts may be arranged sequentially and cumulatively to makeup the required minimum 1,000 hours. Each internship will include a significant engagement in a congregational context. The Deacon internship is independently arranged in consultation with the Wartburg Seminary Director of Contextual Education, the internship site, and the synod Candidacy Committee.

Registration for both CPE and the Internship are coordinated with the Registrar's office upon notification of a placement from the Contextual Education Office.

MADM Research Project/Integrative Capstone Seminar

[For new MADM degree students starting in Fall 2022, or those who started earlier and will not have their IN 305W project completed by May 2024:] The MADM Integrative Capstone Seminar (IN 325W, 3 credits) provides an opportunity for students to integrate what they have learned throughout their degree, including their deacon internship, in a seminar project. This seminar is completed normally in the student's last spring semester of coursework in the degree program and combines what was previously a separate research course (IN 300W) and the previous diaconal ministry research project (IN 305W) into a single capstone seminar. Depending on the student's specialty for diaconal ministry, this seminar may produce a research paper, other project, or portfolio work, and normally includes a community presentation in early May. The MA/MADM Coordinator of the faculty normally is the instructor for this integrative seminar and oversees (along with possibly the student's academic advisor or other faculty) the student projects.

[For students who started before Fall 2022 and who will not have their IN 305W project completed by May 2024:] The diaconal ministry research project, a two-semester hour activity in the final semester of the degree program, integrates the course work for the degree with the internship. This research will normally be related to the ministry specialization toward which the student is preparing. A written project report is required, and an oral presentation is also recommended. The diaconal ministry research project begins in the fall semester of the student's second year with a research seminar to focus project ideas and learn helpful research skills, with additional help available through the seminary's Writing Center. The MA/MADM Coordinator of the faculty normally provides general oversight for Master of Arts and Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry projects in addition to the student's academic advisor.

Concentrations

The MA in Diaconal Ministry degree program offers the option of concentrations only upon the approval of the faculty, insofar as diaconal ministry is already a specialization. The concentration options and requirements are the same as those outlined under the Master of Divinity degree program.

Ecclesiastic Requirements

Candidates planning to enter the deacon roster (or its equivalent in another church body) may have additional ecclesiastic requirements to complete beyond an academic degree program.

For non-ELCA students, WTS is committed to work with the student's church body wherever possible to meet the needs of those ecclesiastic requirements, particularly the internship/fieldwork components. Prospective students, and their respective church judicatories, should be in conversation with WTS as early as possible, preferably before the student is admitted to this degree program. WTS may request a written letter of understanding from the denominational judicatory that identifies the ecclesial requirements and approval by that church body into the WTS degree program to meet the student's academic requirements for that church roster.

MA In Diaconal Ministry Graduation Requirements

The requirements of the Master of Arts in Diaconal Ministry degree are:

1. The satisfactory completion of the academic requirements (including all named courses or their authorized equivalents, and distribution requirements) with a minimum of 64 semester hours (depending on choice among requirements), including CPE and the deacon internship.
2. A minimum of one third of the recognized MADM degree credits must be completed for this degree with Wartburg Theological Seminary-taught coursework and Wartburg-supervised contextual ministry (i.e., a student's MADM degree cannot consist entirely of credits transferred from institutions, consist of advanced standing, or overlap by more than two-thirds with other degrees previously earned through WTS).
3. A recommendation by the faculty to the Board of Directors and the Board's approval. A student must be in good standing with the business office, library, and financial aid office in order to receive a diploma.

Contextual Education Requirement – In addition to the course requirements illustrated above, the MA in Diaconal Ministry degree has two additional contextual education ministry requirements:

- 1) A unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) – normally completed in Summer 1 (or Summer 2 if needed); and
- 2) A six-month deacon internship in a pastoral setting – begins concurrently with coursework or in summer

Neither contextual education registration is charged tuition.

Degree Total = Minimum of 64 semester hours.

Master of Arts Degree Program (MA)– One-Year Degree

The Master of Arts degree program is designed for students interested in theological study at a graduate level for further academic study, church leadership, Christian service in society, or personal growth.

Course Load

The MA degree program can be completed in as short as one full academic year for full-time students. To be considered a full-time student and to be eligible for all forms of financial aid, a student must take a minimum of nine (9) semester hours of coursework per semester. Permission of the Academic Dean is needed for registrations above 15.5 credits in the fall or spring semester. Part-time students with 6 coursework credit hours or more may have access to Federal financial aid and to defer student loans. Please see the program chart below for an elaboration of the normal sequencing of courses in a one-year residential or distance learning MA degree.

Residential and Distance Learning Options

Master of Arts students enroll as either Residential Learner (RL) or Distance Learner (DL) students. These categories of student are defined as follows:

- Residential Learners (RL) – The “Residential Learner” is the on-campus student (or commuter) who completes coursework in face-to-face classroom learning on campus in Dubuque.
- Distance Learners (DL) – The “Distance Learner” is the off-campus student who is studying from their home context and completing their courses from afar. For completion in one year, it is expected that a distance learner, who may or may not be working part-time, can sustain a course load equal to the residential learner, and that it is a matter of location and personal circumstances (due to work, family, or other reasons) that distinguishes a DL student from the RL student.

Time Available to Complete the Degree

The Master of Arts degree normally must be completed within five (5) calendar years of study from the oldest course to the most recent course, unless specific action is taken by the faculty to extend this duration for a student.

Students who have interrupted their theological education for seven or more years prior to re-entrance ordinarily will not receive credit for previous work unless specific action is taken by the faculty at the recommendation of the Academic Dean to extend this for a student.

MA Program Learning Outcomes

The following desired learning outcomes guide the Master of Arts degree program:

1. Demonstrates clarity about the Gospel character of the Christian message in all dimensions of public leadership.
 - a. Understands the Gospel as true for one’s life
 - b. Distinguishes the activity of the Word as Law and Gospel
 - c. Articulates and lives out a clear Christian identity
 - d. Engages the way of Jesus Christ and the Cross
 - e. Cultivates a compelling vision of the Gospel for public leadership
2. Interprets reality and relationships biblically and theologically as a habit.
 - a. Understands biblical and theological traditions and teachings
 - b. Interprets reality theologically and biblically as a habit using a core set of theological concepts
 - c. Employs critical thinking to understand the Christian faith
3. Achieves academic competence to reflect critically and theologically at the intersection of faith and society.
 - a. Integrates biblical and theological knowledge with personal faith
 - b. Demonstrates an ability to design and complete an integrative theological project
 - c. Applies biblical and theological academic learning to faithful life in the world
 - d. Engages biblical and theological wisdom in focus project topic

MA Curriculum Degree Requirements

The Master of Arts degree consists of a minimum of 30 semester hours of coursework and research earned by the following named requirements: The requirements are itemized below. Elective coursework beyond the listed courses is needed to meet the minimum number of credit hours. [See the two curriculum charts later in this section showing the typical course sequence for both a one-year and three-semester versions of the degree program.]

1. Two Spiritual Practices courses – Totalling 1 hour, one course each semester:

IN 161W Spiritual Practices 1 (0.5 hr, Fall Semester)

IN 162W Spiritual Practices 2 (0.5 hr, Spring Semester)

2. Biblical Studies (BI) – A minimum of 6 hours, usually as two courses, three credits each semester:

Two three-credit courses, one each semester, of the student's choosing. Typical options include: BI 190W Engaging the New Testament Narratives (3 hrs, Spring Semester course), BI 192W Engaging the New Testament Letters (3 hrs, Fall Semester Course), or BI 222W Hebrew Bible Content I (3 hrs; a Fall Semester course, which can then be followed by BI 224W Hebrew Bible Content II, 3 hours, as a spring semester course, as BI 222W is a pre-requisite). More advanced courses are available for students with the requisite academic background.

3. History and Theology (HT) – A minimum of 6 hours, usually as two courses, three credits each semester:

Two three-credit courses, one each semester, of the student's choosing. Typical options include: HT 105W The Global Church in Motion I (3 hrs, Fall Semester, focusing on early church history and mission), HT 140W Systematic Theology (3 hrs, Spring Semester), HT 212W Lutheran Confessions (3 hrs, Fall Semester), HT 205W The Global Church in Motion 2 (3 hrs, Spring Semester, focusing on Reformation to modern church history and mission), and HT 267W Lutheran Ethics (3 hrs, Fall Semester). More advanced courses are available for students with the requisite academic background.

4. Ministry (MN) or Interdisciplinary/Integrative (IN) – A minimum of 6 hours, as two or more courses, three credits each semester:

Two three-credit courses, one each semester, or a combination of one- and two-credit courses in each semester, of the student's choosing. Typical options of a practical ministry emphasis include: MN 106W Foundations of Lutheran Worship (3 hrs, Fall Semester), MN 131W In Faith, For Faith: Basics of Christian Proclamation (1 hr, Spring Semester), MN 230W Preaching (3 hrs, Spring Semester), MN 255W Being Body of Christ (2 hrs, Spring Semester), and MN 270W Pastoral Care in Context (3 hrs, Spring Semester), as well as a rotating series of courses (mostly one credit each) offered on topics in rural ministry and specialty areas within pastoral care, including youth and family ministry. Typical options that are interdisciplinary or integrative in nature include: IN 142W Formation for Discipleship (2 hrs, Spring Semester), and IN 243W 21st Century Leadership (2 hrs, Fall Semester).

5. Degree-specific courses – Two courses, both in the fall, totaling 3 hours:

IN 141W Jesus Christ and Plural Worlds (2 hrs, Fall Semester)
IN 127W MA Colloquium (1 hr, Fall Semester)

6. A significant capstone research project – One course, including a project on a topic of research

IN 327W MA Integrative Capstone Project (3 hrs, Spring Semester)

7. A January Interim Course (2 hours)

This required January course can be selected from among the travel courses that are cross-culturally focused, as a course of general intellectual interest, or taken as a two-credit independent study focused on research for your capstone research project.

8. At least three additional credits of Elective coursework

In order to reach the minimum needed of 30 semester credits for this Master of Arts degree, the student will need to take at least three (3) additional credits of coursework. This course (or combination of courses) is entirely of the student's choosing from among the options available at the time.

MA Integrative Capstone Project

The project integrates the course work for the degree with the objectives of the student. The capstone project is an opportunity to explore a topic of one's personal interest. It may be in one of the classical disciplines, or it may be related to some area of ministry or of personal interest. A written report is required, along with the possibility of an optional oral presentation. Guidance for the capstone project is provided in the MA Colloquium in the fall, as well as in the MA Research Seminar in the spring semester.

MA Graduation Requirements

The requirements of the Master of Arts degree are:

1. The satisfactory completion of the academic requirements (including all named courses or their authorized equivalents, and distribution requirements) with a minimum of 30 semester hours.
2. One-year equivalent minimum of Wartburg Theological Seminary taught-coursework (that is, a degree cannot consist entirely of credits transferred from other institutions outside of WTS).
3. A recommendation by the faculty to the Board of Directors and the Board's approval. A student must be in good standing with the business office, library, and financial aid office to receive a diploma.

Non-Degree Certificate Programs

Wartburg Theological Seminary offers a series of non-degree certificate programs, intended to meet either vocational requirements of the church (primarily the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, ELCA, or its partner denominations in ministry) or to provide opportunities for personal enrichment and continuing education.

To meet the requirements of the Theological Education for Emerging Ministries (TEEM) program of the ELCA, Wartburg offers two (2) specialized programs:

- Classic TEEM, a 16-course/requirement program, taught in English through a combination of online and face-to-face courses in Dubuque, Iowa,; including completion of a clinical experience and internship, and
- Journey Together / Caminemos Juntos, a competency based (CBE) theological education program in Spanish or English, completed in a congregational context with digital delivery of academic requirements and with an online mentor group; including completion of a clinical experience and internship.

Rostered leaders or lay persons may take certificate classes on a class-by-class basis or as part of a specialized non-ordination track certificate program. Wartburg offers four specialized certificate programs. Each certificate program consists of completing from eight to twelve course requirements that meet both general and specialized requirements of each certificate:

- Certificate in Theological Studies (8)
- Advanced Certificate in Small Town & Rural Ministry (12)
- Advanced Certificate in Theology and Congregational Leadership (12)
- Advanced Certificate in Youth & Family Ministry (12)

Each certificate program can begin at any time.,

The two TEEM programs are officially recognized by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America as an approved method for Word and Sacrament candidates to prepare for ordination through the ELCA's TEEM program.. Neither TEEM nor the non-degree certificate programs are accredited by either the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) or the Higher Learning Commission (HLC). Courses taught in the Certificate Programs do not earn graduate-level masters credit, although most are taught to the standards for time and work involved that may be recognized by other schools and organizations as equivalent to one (1) semester hour of credit at a graduate level.

Theological Education for Emerging Ministries (TEEM)

Theological Education for Emerging Ministries (TEEM) is a leadership formation process in the ELCA designed for those who meet the established criteria. Authorized in the Constitutions, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (7.31.04) and described in the Study of Ministry (2003), the Study of Theological Education (1993; 1995), and the ELCA's Plan for Mission adopted at the 2003 Churchwide Assembly, the TEEM process responds to ministry needs of the ELCA. (ELCA Candidacy Manual)

Candidates for the TEEM program are nominated by their synods and approved by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA).. Each candidate for TEEM works with a Competency Assessment Panel (CAP, comprised of ELCA regionally deployed staff, synod candidacy, and seminary representatives) to design a program of study to complete all the TEEM educational requirements.

Both Classic TEEM and Journey Together incorporate the guidelines of the ELCA, which stipulate a program of study through a seminary of the church that includes the study of Scripture, Christian theology, the Lutheran Confessions, church history, worship, preaching, and the polity and practices of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Both TEEM programs of Wartburg Theological Seminary are designed to meet all the ELCA requirements for the following seven competencies: biblical knowledge and understanding, basic understanding of theology/ethics, knowledge of Christianity in the United States, ability to understand and communicate the teachings of the Lutheran church, evangelism/stewardship/worship, pastoral care skills, and knowledge of ELCA church polity and ecclesiology.

(1) Wartburg Theological Seminary Classic TEEM Program

Curriculum

The Wartburg Seminary TEEM Curriculum is designed to meet all ELCA requirements for the following seven competencies: biblical knowledge and understanding, basic understanding of theology/ethics, knowledge of Christianity in the United States, ability to understand and communicate the teachings of the Lutheran church, evangelism/stewardship/worship, pastoral care skills, and knowledge of ELCA church polity and ecclesiology.

The WTS Classic TEEM curriculum for the ELCA's Word and Sacrament (i.e., ordained) ministry roster currently includes the following requirements, courses, and activities:

- Hebrew Bible 1 (Torah and Psalms)
- Hebrew Bible 2 (Prophets and Wisdom)
- New Testament 1 (Gospels and Revelation)
- New Testament 2 (Pauline and Pastoral Epistles)
- Church History
- Lutheran Confessions and Mission
- Systematic Theology 1 and 2
- Lutheran Ethics
- Lutheran Leadership, Ecclesiology, and Church Polity
- Preaching 1 and 2
- Lutheran Worship
- Educational Ministry
- Pastoral Care
- Contextual Ministry (including stewardship and evangelism)
- One Unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) – completed either through an ACPE-registered CPE instructional site, or by completing the seminary's Clinical Program of Wartburg (CPW) when allowed by the student's synod.
- Internship
- Mentoring (as arranged by the student's synod)

Candidates may meet requirements for the Wartburg Classic TEEM curriculum through multiple methods:

1. Intensive courses on the Wartburg campus in Dubuque, with usually up to ten courses scheduled per year: typically as two courses during the fall semester (with one course each on a three-day weekend, for two separate weekends), two courses during a five-day session at the end of January, and typically six courses scheduled as two courses per week (five days) for two different weeks in June and one week July.
2. Through designated TEEM online courses. Three to four online courses are typically offered each fall and spring semester, with each course lasting for eight or ten weeks.
3. Through designated Masters-level courses held on the Wartburg campus during the fall and spring semesters that can be taken by arrangement through cross-registration.
4. Through designated Masters-level online courses provided by WTS that can be taken by arrangement through cross-registration.

Current Classic TEEM Program Courses

See the TEEM Classic Program Guide for a fuller description of the curriculum, including course descriptions, modes of instruction, and other requirements.

WTS Classic TEEM Tuition

See the separate Tuition and Fees section elsewhere in this catalog, or on the Wartburg Seminary website, for current tuition rates. Internship is also considered a "course" for purposes of the WTS TEEM program, with a one-time course tuition charged to the student.

ELCA Candidacy Application for Classic TEEM

The WTS Classic TEEM program is available only to students approved by their synod and the ELCA Directory of Candidacy for TEEM and who are entranced for candidacy.

Graduation Requirements for Classic TEEM

To graduate and receive the TEEM certificate, the student needs to complete all the requirements for the certificate, file the "Application for Degree or Certificate" form with the Registrar, and be cleared for completion and in good standing with the Wartburg Theological Seminary business office, library, and financial aid office, including any requested payments and assigned tasks.

Time Available to Complete the WTS Classic TEEM Program

The TEEM program normally must be completed within seven (7) calendar years of study from the oldest course to the most recent course, unless specific action is taken by the faculty to extend this duration for a student.

(2) Wartburg Theological Seminary Journey Together / Caminemos Juntos CBE TEEM Program

Curriculum:

The competency-based (CBE) Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos curriculum, currently offered in English or Spanish, is designed around learning objectives toward building five competencies in each student:

- A. Biblical Knowledge & Interpretation
- B. Pastoral Formation & Sacramental Leadership
- C. Faith in Jesus Christ & Theological Knowledge
- D. Discipleship & Christian Community
- E. Mission Development & Community Organizing as Resources for Intercultural Leadership

Nine modules of curriculum contribute to the formation of these five competencies in each student. Modules are completed sequentially, each building on the work from the previous modules, and are completed at a pace established by the student. Normally students will complete three (3) modules per year, completing the program in three (3) years. The nine module themes are:

- Module 1: The Word is Near to You
- Module 2: Justification by Grace through Faith
- Module 3: Faith Active in Love
- Module 4: Faith Comes through Hearing the Word
- Module 5: We Believe in One God
- Module 6: Go in Peace, Serve the Lord
- Module 7: Come, Holy Spirit
- Module 8: For Freedom Christ has Set You Free
- Module 9: Go, Therefore!

In addition to the CBE curriculum, Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos (TEEM) students will (1) complete one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE), either through an ACPE-registered CPE instructional site, or by completing the seminary's Clinical Program of Wartburg (CPW) when allowed by the student's synod, (2) mentoring through peer groups, and (3) an internship (which is completed at the student's congregational site and typically starts at the completion of Module 2 and continues through Module 8).

Students are accompanied on their Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos experience by an Assessment Team comprised of the local site supervisor, mentor, and faculty advisor. In addition to regular check-ins, this team will hold the student accountable to the completion of the learning objectives for each module, allowing them to move from one module to the next.

(2) Programa CBE-TEEM Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos del Seminario Teológico Wartburg

Currículo:

El currículo de Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos, el TEEM Basado en Competencias ofrecido en inglés o español, está diseñado en torno a resultados de aprendizaje para desarrollar cinco competencias en cada estudiante:

- A. Conocimiento e Interpretación Bíblica.
- B. Formación Pastoral y Liderazgo Sacramental.
- C. Fe en Jesucristo y Conocimiento Teológico.
- D. Discipulado y Vida Cristiana.
- E. Vitalidad Congregacional y Organización Comunitaria para el Liderazgo Intercultural.

Los nueve módulos del currículo contribuyen a la formación de estas cinco competencias en cada estudiante. Los módulos se completan de manera secuencial, cada uno construyendo sobre el trabajo de los módulos anteriores, y se completan al ritmo establecido por el estudiante. Normalmente, los estudiantes completarán tres (3) módulos por año, finalizando el programa en tres (3) años. Los temas de los nueve módulos son los siguientes:

- Módulo 1: La Palabra está cerca de ti
- Módulo 2: Justificación por la Gracia mediante la Fe
- Módulo 3: Fe Activa en el Amor
- Módulo 4: La Fe viene a través de escuchar la Palabra
- Módulo 5: Creemos en un solo Dios
- Módulo 6: Vayan en Paz y Sirvan al Señor
- Módulo 7: Ven, Espíritu Santo
- Módulo 8: Por la libertad, Cristo te ha liberado
- Módulo 9: ¡Por lo tanto, vayan!

Además del currículo CBE, los estudiantes de Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos (TEEM) completarán (1) una unidad de Educación Pastoral Clínica (CPE), ya sea a través de un sitio de instrucción de CPE registrado por ACPE o completando el Programa Clínico del Seminario Wartburg (CPW) cuando lo permita el sínodo del estudiante, (2) mentoría a través de grupos de compañeros y (3) un internado (que se lleva a cabo en el sitio congregacional del estudiante y generalmente comienza al completar el Módulo 2 y continúa hasta el Módulo 8).

Los estudiantes son acompañados en su experiencia de Journey Together /Caminemos Juntos por un Equipo de Evaluación compuesto por el supervisor local del sitio, el mentor y el asesor de la facultad. Además de las verificaciones regulares, este equipo responsabilizará al estudiante por la finalización de los resultados de aprendizaje de cada módulo, permitiéndoles avanzar al siguiente módulo.

Matrícula del Programa Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos de WTS

Consulte la sección separada de Matrícula y Tarifas en otro lugar de este catálogo o en el sitio web del Seminario Teológico Wartburg para conocer las tarifas de matrícula actuales. El Internado también se considera un "curso" a efectos del programa TEEM de WTS, con una tarifa de matrícula única que se cobra al estudiante.

Aplicación de Candidatura ELCA para el Programa Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos CBE-TEEM

El programa Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos CBE-TEEM de WTS solo está disponible para estudiantes aprobados por su sínodo y el Directorio de Candidatura de ELCA para TEEM, y que estén inscritos para la candidatura.

Requisitos de Graduación para el Programa Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos CBE-TEEM

Para graduarse y recibir el certificado CBE-TEEM, el estudiante debe completar todos los requisitos para el certificado (o su equivalente identificado a través de créditos de reconocimiento avanzado o transferencia), presentar el formulario "Solicitud de Grado o Certificado" al Registrador y estar autorizado para completar y estar en buen estado con la oficina comercial, la biblioteca y la oficina de ayuda financiera del Seminario Teológico Wartburg, lo que incluye cualquier pago solicitado y tareas asignadas.

Tiempo Disponible para Completar el Programa Journey Together/Caminemos Juntos de WTS

Normalmente, el programa CBE-TEEM debe completarse en un plazo de siete (7) años calendario desde el curso más antiguo hasta el curso más reciente, a menos que la facultad tome medidas específicas para extender esta duración para un estudiante.

Course Descriptions

Key to Wartburg Course Numbers

Each course number consists of a two-letter prefix, a three-digit course number and a one-letter suffix. The two-letter prefix refers to the curriculum area in which the course is offered:

BI = Biblical Studies division

HT = History and Theology division

MN = Ministry division

IN = Integrative courses, taught by professors of the BI, HT, and MN divisions

ST = Master of Sacred Theology (Reserved, currently not used)

TM,TC = TEEM Certificate Course

CE/CO = Other Certificate Courses

LS = Courses at LSPS

The three-digit course number refers to the following classifications. Although some courses presuppose a certain level of preparation, students may cross number levels if appropriate prerequisite requirements are met and the instructor approves.

000-Level: Courses whose first digit is "0" do not receive Masters credit in a seminary degree program.

100-Level: Courses designed for First-Year Students (typically those in the first year of a degree program)

200-Level: Courses designed for Second-Year Students (typically those in their middle years of a degree program, after the first year, but before their final year)

300-Level: Courses designed for advanced Final-Year Students (typically those in their final year of a degree program)

400-Level: Courses designed for the Master of Sacred Theology (Reserved, currently not used)

The one-letter suffix following the course number identifies the seminary that is offering the course, whether it is cooperatively offered by both seminaries, or whether this is an online course or one taught in Spanish:

W = Wartburg Theological Seminary

E = Online ("asynchronous") Course

D = University of Dubuque Theological Seminary (Reserved, currently not used)

T = jointly offered by the Schools of Theology in Dubuque (Wartburg and UDTS; Reserved, currently not used)

H = Hispanic Ministry/Spanish Language Course

The course descriptions represent a reasonably accurate listing of courses available, including those more recently taught or planned possibly in the future. Courses may not be available in every instance precisely as described here. Full information on available courses, including objectives, content and requirements, is published each semester and made available to all current students prior to preregistration.

Wartburg Seminary Courses

Biblical Studies Division

BI 103W New Testament Greek

[Requirement BI-L]

This course is an introduction to Koine Greek, the primary expression of ancient Greek used widely throughout Hellenistic period (roughly c.300 BCE to c.300 CE). It is important for biblical and theological study and for formation for ministry primarily because Koine is the dialect used in the Septuagint, New Testament, and the writings of the early church. The course is designed primarily to equip students to read and exegete the New Testament in Greek. Required for first-year MDiv students, and optional for others.
Three semester hours, Troftgruben, M. Persaud, Giere

BI 190W Engaging the New Testament Narratives

[Requirement BI-1]

This course is one part of a two semester introduction to the New Testament, focusing on exegesis, interpretation, and teaching of the New Testament. We will explore the diverse voices and various contexts of the four Gospels and Acts, with special attention given to their portrayals of Israel's heritage and people, engagement with surrounding cultural forces, and different theological messages.

Required for MADM and M.Div. students.

Three semester hours. Troftgruben, M. Persaud, staff

BI 192W Engaging the New Testament Letters
[Requirement BI-2]

This course is one part of a two semester introduction to the New Testament, focusing on exegesis, interpretation, and teaching of the New Testament. We will explore the diverse messages and various contexts of the NT epistolary writings—from Romans to Revelation—with special attention given to their uses of Israel's theological heritage, engagement with political and cultural forces, and approaches to ethics, practice, and ecclesiology.

*Required for MADM and M.Div. students.
Three semester hours. Troftgruben, M. Persaud, staff*

BI 201W Computer-aided Biblical Studies

This course equips students and develops capacity with computer-based research skills for the scholarly study of the Bible. This is primarily done through learning and using leading biblical research software, but also includes engaging other digital resources, such as online scholarly journals, bibliographic computer software, and Internet-based tools. One semester hour, Elness-Hanson

BI 202W Readings in New Testament Greek

Designed for students who wish to further their Greek competency, this course involves translating texts from the New Testament and discussing the pertinent grammatical, syntactical, and interpretive issues. Can be taken more than once. One Semester Hour, M. Persaud

BI 203W Readings in Ecclesiastical Latin

This course is an experience in reading selections of interest from church writings in Latin. Reading will come from Jerome's Vulgate translation of the Bible, ancient Christian creeds, liturgical texts, and the writings of Martin Luther. While the course will offer basic introduction to Latin as a language (grammar, vocabulary, syntax), with helps from recommended textbooks, the focus of most class periods together will be around reading actual texts in Latin and making sense of them for our appreciation.. Elective, offered occasionally, One or Two Semester Hours, Troftgruben

BI 204W Readings in Biblical Hebrew

History and Theology Division

HT 105W Global Church in Motion 1 [Requirement HT-1]

Participants will study Christian history with a consistent focus on how people shared and spread the faith in their time and setting. The course begins with examination of how Christianity spread in the centuries after Christ, both inside and outside the Roman Empire; it then continues to follow Christian groups and renewal movements around the world, up to the eve of the Reformation. Three semester hours. Lohrmann and Stache

HT 140W Systematic Theology [Requirement HT-2]

This course will examine God's multifaceted activity in the history of salvation with an eye to its unity. It will explore the Christian interpretation of the relationship between God, humanity, and the world in its religious plurality in a history that extends from creation and fall to the consummation of all things, and that centers in Jesus Christ.

Required, first year MDiv and MADM students, offered every spring, three semester hours, W.Persaud and Yip

HT 178W Invitation to Food Theology

Creating space for new imagination and skills in pastoral and diaconal ministry, this course will build strong connections between food and faith that can lead to a reclamation and renewal of gospel-centered mission. Seminar participants will gain familiarity with the growing field of food theology as they develop theological and practical resources to apply in congregational and community settings.

Elective, one or two semester hours. May fulfill the Youth and Family Ministry requirement. Lohrmann and Lisi.

HT 191W Reading Theology in German

A periodic seminar offered to allow students to practice their German by reading theological texts in this language under guidance of an instructor. Elective, one semester hour, Nesson

HT 205W Global Church in Motion 2 [Requirement HT-4]

A continuation of Requirement HT-1, HT 105W, this course examines global Christian witness and mission in the past 500 years. Special attention will be given to the diversity of Christian communities after the Reformation, the impact of social factors like colonialism, industrialism and rationalism on religious life, and the efforts of immigrant communities—including Lutherans—to balance identity and change in new contexts. Three semester hours. Lohrmann

HT 212W Lutheran Confessions [Requirement HT-3]

This course studies The Book of Concord: The Confessions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, the collection of Reformation-era writings that expresses the scriptural and theological foundations for Lutheran faith and practice. Students will learn the contexts in which these documents were written and become acquainted with their content. The course will also connect the Lutheran Confessions with key aspects of church life today, especially preaching and other forms of gospel proclamation.

Three semester hours. Lohrmann, with Gilmore

HT 222W Postcolonial Reflections: Christianity in the Age of Empire

This course takes an interdisciplinary approach to the investigation of the role coloniality of power and empire played in the rise of Christianity, as well as the development of the Christian faith in church and the world. The course addresses specific themes or issues weekly. With the aids of historical studies, biblical and theological reflections, and postcolonial critique, participants will reflect on the Christian faith, including its beliefs and practices, and envision a more equitable and inclusive world in the contemporary contexts of empire and globalization. Elective, one semester hour. Yip.

HT 231W Feminist Theologies

In the choir of voices that constitute systematic theology in the 21st century, one of the most important sections of the choir is that of feminist theologians. In our current context, feminist theologians are raising issues and challenging traditional church doctrines in ways that are deeply meaningful and relevant not only for women, but for all Christians and the larger life of the church in the world. Therefore, it is of critical importance that women and men who are planning to serve the church in public ministry have both an understanding and appreciation of feminist theologies. This course seeks to provide students with both, looking at a variety of voices representing different ethnic, national, gender and ecumenical backgrounds, while also focusing on Feminist Lutheran voices and different views of Jesus Christ and the cross. One semester hour. Largen

HT 245W An Introduction to Christology in Global Contexts

This course provides an overview of contemporary Christologies in global contexts. While reflecting on the person and work of Jesus Christ, this course examines specific methodologies involved in the task of Christological formulation. It also highlights the challenges posed to Christology by complex realities, such as social violence, political instability, economic hardship, environmental degradation, and religious pluralism. Participants will gain insight into the main ideas, key theologians, and specific methodologies involved in the formulation of the various Christologies. Participants will also contribute to the Christological debate in light of the themes explored throughout the course for the growth of the church. No prerequisites are required to take this course. Elective, one semester hour. Yip

HT 259W Theologians or Topics in Theology

An occasional topics course focusing each time on a selected theologian or topic in theology. Elective, variously one or two semester hours (and reserved for use primarily when an on-going course on the topic or person is not anticipated), Staff

HT260W American Genocide 1: American Indian History and Theology

Insofar as this course engages different texts in different semesters, students may enroll more than once. Elective, one semester hour, Nessan

HT261W American Genocide 2: African American History, Slavery, and Black Theology

This ethics readings course engages selected texts in African American history, the history of slavery in the U.S., and black theology. The procedure involves discussion of assigned texts in seminar format. Insofar as this course engages different texts in different semesters, students may enroll more than once. Elective, one semester hour, Nessan

HT 264W Readings in Theology: A Critical, Meditative and Contemplative Approach

This course will involve a critical, contemplative, and meditative reading of the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification between Lutherans and Roman Catholics (31 October 1999) and selected texts of the Common Statements from the Lutheran-Roman Catholic Dialogue USA, Volumes I-X. The focus will be on a way of reading theological texts-critical, meditative and contemplative, and the doctrine of justification. Elective, one or two semester hours, can be taken more than once, W. Persaud/Staff

HT 267W Lutheran Ethics: Freedom for the Neighbor

[Requirement HT-5]

An introduction to Christian ethics, paying particular attention to Lutheran themes: Word of God, law and gospel, Christian freedom, two kingdoms, vocation, reason, and ethics of the cross. Course includes reflection on the congregation as locus for ethical leadership, focus on teaching social statements, and attention to method in moral deliberation. Three semester hours, Nessan

HT 276W Caribbean Theology, Slavery and Colonialism

An attempt to discern the indigenous ways of conceptualizing the liberating presence and acts of God among the oppressed and suffering during the history of slavery and colonialism in the Caribbean. Elective, one semester hour, W. Persaud

HT 280W Engaging the Religious Other: Interfaith Dialogue

Interreligious and ecumenical dialogues present a variety of rich opportunities for growth, friendship, community engagement and faith formation. These dialogues can occur around religious beliefs, rituals and practices, and issues of justice, among other things, and they offer tangible benefits to public ministers and congregations alike. One semester hour. Largen or Nessan

HT 291W Theological Reflections on the New Diaspora

This course takes an interdisciplinary approach to unearth the voice of those in exile, displaced, and on the move at the local and global levels. The course addresses specific themes or issues weekly. From rethinking the geopolitical justice in the context of Israel/Palestine to connecting the prophetic voice with emerging crises worldwide fomented by current neocolonial practices and global rise of authoritarianism, participants will reflect on the cultural and religious concerns of the new diaspora, the significance of minoritized liberation theologies, and the deeper meaning of global solidarity. Elective, one semester hour. Yip

HT 294W Theology of Wartburg Seminary

Examines the history of Wartburg Seminary and the theology of those who have taught and learned at the school. After examining the mission theology of Wilhelm Loehe, special attention is given to the positions taken by the Iowa Synod and the theological contributions of Sigmund Fritschel, Gottfried Fritschel, J. Michael Reu, and other important figures. Elective, one or two semester hours, Nessan

HT 297W Doctrine of the Trinity

In this seminar, participants will engage in careful, critical reading and discussion of the text, God for Us, by Catherine Mowry LaCugna, whose subtitle, "The Trinity and Christian Life," aptly points to the practical character of the doctrine of the Trinity. We will examine how LaCugna's approach offers crucial insights into the church's confession of the Gospel of God's saving action in Jesus Christ which is centered and rooted in the identity of God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

General elective or can be adapted as a elective for the Mission Development Concentration, one or two semester hours, W. Persaud

HT 340W The Trinity: Dogma, Salvation and Doxology

The focus of this research seminar will be on the biblical and historical development of the doctrine of the trinity, as well as contemporary reinterpretations of the essential triunity of God that are centered in the identity of God as the unity of the triune community of Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and in God's saving action in Jesus Christ.

Mystery both in God and in God's salvation calls forth adoration, praise and thanksgiving. Three semester hours, W. Persaud

HT 350W The Person and Work of the Holy Spirit

The focus of this seminar will be on the biblical, historical, and contemporary development of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. Our focus will be trinitarian, and a primary area of investigation will be the creedal confession: "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life. . . ." The overriding focus will be the doctrines of creation, redemption, and sanctification from the standpoint of the Person and Work of the Holy Spirit. Three semester hours, can be adapted as an elective option for the Mission Development Concentration, W. Persaud

HT 355W Luther and the Religions

In this research seminar, we will read and critically evaluate both primary texts in Luther and the World Religions, as well as secondary texts which address the question of a contemporary theology of religions in our religiously plural context. Three semester hours, W. Persaud

HT 356W Topics in Luther's Theology

An advanced seminar that will explore various aspects of Luther's theology and praxis by reading works of Luther's Reformation, including a look at contemporary implications, with the topic varying each time.

One or two semester hours, some iterations of this course may fulfill the MDiv Youth and Family Ministry requirement. Lohrmann

HT 360W Luther's Theology of the Cross and Marx's Anthropology

In this research seminar, we will consider texts in Luther and Marx which show how each defined their respective context (religiocultural, socio-economic, and political) in the sixteenth and nineteenth centuries, the meaning of human being, and how they articulated radically different responses to the ills of their day. Special attention will be given to the question of how to interpret critically the contemporary context and, consequently, respond to the call to articulate the gospel of God's justifying grace in Jesus Christ in a world crying out for justice. Three semester hours, W. Persaud

HT 389W Theological Anthropology: The Image of God and Visions of the Human Person

Theological Anthropology, in a broader sense, explores what it means to be human from the perspective of Christian faith. This course will investigate concepts of the human being through the lens of critical cultural studies along with biblical and theological reflections on theological anthropology. Participants will engage in emerging theological discussions of the body, gender, race, religion, and human flourishing. What it means to be human remains a question continually asked of us, particularly in relation to those on the margins of our society and the world. Three semester hours. Yip

HT 393W Liberation Theology

This is a research seminar which views liberation theology as an ecumenical theology. Attention will be directed to its Sitz im leben. The writings of Latin American and other theologians will be considered in terms of Marx's influence; the hermeneutic circle; and reformulation of the doctrines of Christ, sin and salvation, church and sacrament, mission and evangelism, and eschatology. Three semester hours, W. Persaud

HT 396W The Contemporary Crisis of Defining and Confessing the Gospel

This seminar will examine the biblical witness (both Testaments) to the gospel; explore the Lutheran principle of law/gospel; discern some of the primary and enticing, distorting formulations of the gospel; consider the meaning of the gospel in the encounter with the religions of the world; consider the contemporary meaning of the article on justification as the article by which the church stands or falls (AC, Art. VII); and explore the interrelatedness of gospel, culture, and mission. Distribution course or elective for the YCM Concentration. Three semester hours, W. Persaud

HT 397W Christocentric Theology in the Age of the New Normal

This course explores the many different ways that theologians and church leaders have understood Jesus Christ in the contemporary world in which social and political changes continue to affect the lives of many. Participants will engage in emerging Christological and theological discussions of the body, gender, race, religion, and human flourishing. Who Jesus Christ is for us today remains a question asked of us and the church, particularly in relation to those on the margins of our society and the world. Three semester hours. Yip

HT 398W Hermeneutics of the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification

This research seminar will be focused on the hermeneutics of the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification (JDDJ, 31 October 1999) between the worldwide Lutheran community (LWF) and the Roman Catholic Church. Specifically, we will critically engage select publications from the ten rounds of the L-RC Dialogue, USA, in light of the JDDJ, asking the fundamental question: How might the JDDJ serve as a hermeneutical catalyst in forwarding the understandings and proposals contained in those documents for the sake of God's mission? Three semester hours, W. Persaud

Independent Study

A student may do independent reading or a research project on some phase of history or theology with the approval and under the guidance of one of the instructors in the division. One to three semester hours.

MN 106W Foundations of Lutheran Worship
[Requirement MN-1]

An initial study of Lutheran worship focused on contemporary practice and the development of good liturgical leadership, with attention to biblical, theological, historical, and ritual foundations. The Sunday assembly around word and sacrament and the celebration of the church year will be highlighted, together with the distinctive features of Lutheran theology and practice. The course is intended for anyone who will be involved in preparing and leading worship in the congregation as well as for those who desire a general introduction to the study of Lutheran worship.

Required, first-year MDiv students; elective-for MA and meets the one-hour requirement for MADM. Three semester hours. Schnell

MN 112W Chapel Choir

A course to foster deeper awareness of the role of music, especially congregational song, in corporate worship, and to offer opportunity to observe and model collaborative ministry between clergy, worship leaders and musicians, and to provide a consistently mentored setting for increased musical competency and spiritual growth for individuals serving the WTS community as members of the Chapel Choir. Meets in conjunction with rehearsals and performances of the Chapel Choir.

Students may take this course for a maximum of one hour credit toward their degree, or as audit for additional times. One-half semester hour, Staff

MN 113W Applied Organ/Piano

Applied music study, including repertoire and service playing techniques suitable for worship in a diversity of settings. For beginning or advanced students. MDiv or MA students may take this course for a maximum of three hours of elective credit. Times to be arranged. Additional tuition required. One half semester hour, Staff

MN 131W-DM Preaching on the Boundaries of the Church

This course provides an overview of a Lutheran theology of preaching and processes of moving faithfully from biblical text to sermon. Particular attention is given to the unique opportunities and challenges of preaching as a deacon inside and outside the traditional pulpit. Discussion includes 1) boundaries around preaching, and proclamation more broadly, as a genre and 2) preaching in response to particular events or issues of justice while faithfully proclaiming Christ crucified. Students preach twice. Open to anyone who has not taken MN230; MADM students prioritized. Two semester hours, Gilmore

MN 131W-CL The Preaching Body

This highly experiential course gives particular attention to the human body as the instrument through which the Gospel resonates and is proclaimed. Students engage in embodied prayer practices as a part of sermon preparation and learn exercises to care for and warm up their bodies and voices for the sake of free, uninhibited proclamation of the gospel. All bodies and all voices are warmly welcomed. This course is one-credit but meets for two hours weekly due to its experiential nature. No more than one hour of work will be assigned outside of class. Open to anyone who has not taken MN230; CL students prioritized. One semester hour, Gilmore

MN 160W/E Seen and Heard: Foundations for Youth and Family Ministry

This course will provide a basic framework for a working theology of youth and family ministry. The challenges and possibilities for mission and ministry to and with young people and their families will be considered in light of the postmodern "turn" in the North American context. Attention will be given to foundations, methods, principles, and strategies for life, ministry, and mission with youth and their families in congregations and communities. Fulfills MDiv Youth and Family Ministry requirement, credit/no credit only. Applies to the YCM Concentration, elective for non-MDiv students, one semester hour, Frambach

MN 161W Congregation and Community: Nurturing Christian Faith in Children, Youth, and Families

This course will provide a basic framework for developing theologies and strategies for ministry to and with children, youth and families. Particular attention will be given to the role of the congregation as community and within community in shaping the lives and faith of children, youth and families. Fulfills MDiv Youth and Family Ministry requirement-and/or as YCM concentration elective, credit/no credit grading only, one semester hour, Stache

MN 162W Church & Home: Faith Formation and Cross-Generational Ministry

This course will focus on the household as a primary locus for faith formation and the congregational community as an intergenerational context for faith development and practices. The challenges and possibilities for mission and ministry to, with and for young people and their families will be considered, particularly in light of the research emerging from the National Study of Youth and Religion. Attention will be given to foundations, methods, principles, and strategies for life, ministry, and mission with youth and their families in congregations and in the home. Fulfills MDiv Youth and Family Ministry requirement and/or as YCM concentration elective, credit/no credit grading only, one semester hour, Frambach

MN 170W Listening and Assessment in Pastoral Care

This course will focus on the significance of listening and explore the practice of assessment in parish ministry. The ministry of pastoral care is the primary domain of the pastoral leader, whereas pastoral counseling is a more specialized ministry to which not all are called and for which not all pastoral leaders have the requisite skills and competencies. The fundamental pastoral care skills of listening and assessment will be considered in this course. Elective, one semester hour, Frambach

MN 195W Rural Plunge Weekend (Fall Semester)

This course involves a field experience in communities on the Illinois-Wisconsin border. Students spend a weekend observing agricultural and other rural enterprises in operation, conversing with community and congregational leaders, and learning about the resources and challenges that affect the quality of life in a rural setting. Plenary class meetings are held before and after the field experience. Fulfills the M. Div. rural ministry requirement, one semester hour, Staff

MN 205W Trauma-Informed Worship (and Ministry)

Rooted in theology, current worship practices, and trauma-recovery science, this experiential class will worship together while exploring best practices supporting trauma healing as a community. In this class, you will not find a pre-packaged trauma-informed worship service, but you will learn and practice skills that equip you to assess what trauma-informed practices may work well in your context.

Elective, counts toward Mission Development/ Redevelopment Concentration, one semester hour, Schnell

MN 212W Chanting: “Speaking on Tones”

A practical learn-by-doing course designed to help worship leaders learn to chant various portions of sung liturgical settings found in (but not restricted to) Evangelical Lutheran Worship, All Creation Sings, and other sources. Class sessions will nurture the development of good breath control and text projection and explore the historical evolution of chant and its role in the worship life and spiritual development of the congregation. One semester hour, Staff

MN 219W Worship Music in Theology and Practice

This course presents a general survey of the use of music in worship, and how music functions as a primary way in which worship is rendered, rather than a decorative accompaniment to worship. Special emphasis is given to issues such as the promotion of good congregational singing, worship planning and team ministry, psalmody, service music, and hymnody. One semester hour, Staff

MN 230W Preaching

[Requirement MN-5]

This introductory preaching course is designed to equip students to preach theologically informed, biblically faithful, contextually astute sermons that proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ crucified in a congregational setting. Topics include a distinctly Lutheran theology of preaching, preaching from the Hebrew Bible, preaching at weddings and funerals, and public issue preaching. Students will proclaim the gospel in three minutes and preach three 8-to-10-minute sermons. Three semester hours, Gilmore

MN 255W Being Body of Christ: Theology of the Congregation

[Requirement MN-4]

This course examines the pastor as theological leader in the congregational context. The congregation is a worship-centered community with a particular identity and mission. Formed at worship to be the body of Christ, the congregation claims this identity through prayer, discipleship, community, and stewardship, and is sent in mission for evangelizing, global accompaniment, ecumenism, and social justice.

Required, MDiv students before or at the start of their internship. Two semester hours. Nessan

MN 264W Readings in Youth, Culture and Mission

In general, this seminar will consider current issues and movements in the field of ministry with young people, with an eye toward their theological implications. The specific focus or topic will change each time this seminar is offered. This course is suited particularly to students involved in the Youth, Culture & Mission concentration (whether MA or MDiv), though open to anyone interested in the theological conversation about youth ministry.

Distribution course for the YCM concentration or an elective, one or two semester hours, Frambach or Stache

MN 269W Topics in Youth, Culture, and Mission

An occasional course focusing on ministry to children, youth, young adult, and/or families as it pertains to a particular topic. Taught generally as a distribution course for the YCM concentration or as elective. One or two semester hours, Staff

MN 270W Pastoral Care in Context

[Requirement MN-2]

This course will provide a working framework for an integrated understanding of pastoral care in the life and ministry of a congregation. Students will be challenged to claim their own approach as a pastoral caregiver and identify the most salient principles and practices for effective pastoral care ministry. Biblical, theological, confessional, systemic and developmental perspectives will inform and undergird the ability of students to read and interpret a variety of “contexts” for pastoral care (e.g., loss and grief, developmental and situational crises, illness, adolescence, inter alia). In addition, students will have both the freedom and time within the course to choose a specific area in the ministry of pastoral care for independent reading and research.

Three semester hours, Frambach

MN 279W Topics in Pastoral Care

In general, this seminar will consider current practices and movements in the field of pastoral care. The specific focus or topic will change each time this seminar is offered.

Elective, one or two semester hours, Frambach

MN 280W Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE)

CPE is conducted in a variety of appropriate centers under the supervision of a chaplain supervisor accredited by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. Students can choose from an intensive unit (typically a 10-week, full-time experience), as an extended unit (typically a part-time experience spread over several months), or as a virtual unit (typically a part-time experience spread over several months with a portion of the work done on-line).

Required, MDiv and MADM students, optional for others, six semester hours, Affiliated Chaplains

MN 281W Clinical Pastoral Education

Work beyond MN 280W for a second or further units.

Elective, three semester hours, normally only two units total (MN 280W plus one unit of MN 281W) can apply to the MDiv degree for credit. Affiliated Chaplains

MN 283W Pastoral Practicum in Mission Development

This is a 2 to 3-week (full-time equivalent) contextual engagement with a new church development or redevelopment. It is scheduled as an interim or summer experience of 2 semester hours and is open to any student in the Mission Development Concentration to fulfill the concentration practicum requirement. Two semester hours, Stache

MN 285W Pastoral Practicum in Guyana

This is a 3-week contextual engagement in a parish of the Evangelical Lutheran church in Guyana. Typically, it is scheduled as a J-term offering for 2 credit hours, and is open to any student. Fulfills the cross-cultural distribution requirement, W. Persaud

MN 291W Leadership in Multi-Point Parishes

This course studies the changing patterns of Small Town and Rural (STaR) ministry and the formation of multi-point parishes. In many regions, STaR congregations cooperating with other congregations in various types of configurations are the norm rather than the exception. The area parish, a configuration of multiple congregations with a staff of pastors is a cutting edge and growing model for STaR mission. This course addresses the challenges, the art, and the opportunities for ministry in these settings. Development, leadership, administration, and planning aspects of this type of ministry will be explored. Fulfills the M. Div. rural ministry requirement, a general elective course, and an elective for the Mission Development Concentration, one semester hour, Yackel-Juleen

MN 292W Youth and Family Ministry in a Small Town and Rural Context

This course explores the commonalities and unique differences of youth and family culture in a small town and rural setting. This course considers the practical challenges and opportunities of leading youth and family ministry in small membership congregations and multiple congregation parishes. Particular attention will be given to best practices for such ministry in a small town and rural context. Fulfills the M. Div. rural ministry requirement, a general elective course, and an elective for the Youth and Family Concentration, one semester hour, Yackel-Juleen

MN 293W Rural Ecosystems and Ministry: Connecting Land and People, Creation and Community

Environmental sustainability is at the forefront of societal concerns and in rural contexts there are deep socio-economic and cultural relationships between environment and community. This course will explore those relationships through a biblical/theological lens and reflect on connections to rural cultural contexts and how that informs our practice of ministry—particularly preaching, teaching, and worship. Fulfills the rural ministry distribution requirement, one semester hour, Yackel-Juleen

MN 294W Revisioning and Reforming Mission for Sustainability and Vitality in Rural Contexts

Many small town and rural congregations and communities are facing significant changes and challenges in their context. Their leaders realize that their congregations need to adapt their mission to respond to these challenges in ways that support sustainability and promote vitality. Yet they often struggle in discerning what God is calling them to do and how to practically implement new visions and forms that emerge. Students will learn and develop skills for entering a congregation and leading a discernment process. Students will learn how to concretely implement a vision for new strategies or forms for mission aimed at sustaining and revitalizing congregational ministry. Students will be offered methods, tools, and processes to assess the congregation's current situation using hard data as well as the congregation's energy and spirit. This course highlights numerous possible missional formations as well as other creative adaptations and the methodology to bring them to reality. Fulfills the M. Div. rural ministry requirement, a general elective course, and an elective for the Mission Development Concentration, two semester hours, Yackel-Juleen

MN 295W Ministry in Rural Context

The goal of this course is to expand the student's understanding of the rural setting in order to promote ministerial effectiveness in a small church parish. We will examine the context of the town and rural church and explore the future minister's understanding of their role as a community and spiritual leader. Fulfills the rural ministry distribution requirement, one semester hour, Staff

MN 302W Readings in Liturgical Theology

The course provides an occasion for in-depth reading and wide ranging discussion of a particular topic in liturgical theology. The course will ask how the liturgy—as a practice of communion with God and a participation in God's mission—imagines and engages the world and makes it anew. General elective, or can be adapted (depending on the topic) as an elective course for the Mission Development Concentration, one or two semester hours, Schnell

MN 303W Prophetic Worship

This course explores various biblical foundations and theories of prophetic action and practices skills that undergird prophetic worship. This course encourages deep engagement with the biblical prophets, the power of worship to enact realities, and lived experience. Elective course for the Mission Development/Redevelopment Concentration, Schenll

MN 306W Living Liturgies for Resistance and Renewal in Church and Society
[Requirement MN-6]

This course falls into two distinct, but related parts. The first part focuses on the formation of baptismal identity in relation to the way the community of the church ritually marks life's significant passages—sickness, death, and marriage. Attention will be given 1) to the preparation and conduct of the rites for baptism, confession and forgiveness, healing, funeral, and marriage, 2) to the intersection of these rites with personal experience, cultural practices, and social forces, and 3) to the connection with pastoral care in congregational life. The second part aims to survey critically the landscape of Christian worship in the North American context today and to develop principles and practices that will assist congregations to be vital, faithful, and missional worshipping communities. We will imagine a future for worshipping assemblies in conversation with historic traditions, confessional commitments, emerging cultural realities, and a missional ecclesiology. A weekend of field work as participant observers at the worship of several congregations serves as a point of orientation for reflection and discussion.

Required, final-year MDiv students; elective for MA and MA-Diaconal Ministry students, either the course as a whole or in one of its parts. Three semester hours. Schnell

MN 321W The Bible, Church, and Film

This course is designed to engage the intersection of Bible and Cinema with special attention to place of the Church in/on/under film. Students will explore the categories of bible on film and the bible in film, as the class engages a number of films over the course of the semester. The films explored throughout the course reflect a global cinematic interpretations of Scripture. Students will consider ways that film can be an asset in ministry. Elective, two to three semester hours, Giere

MN 332W Preaching the Hebrew Bible

Working with texts that are often used as background illustrations or simply ignored within Christian worship and life, students will explore by means of a cruciform hermeneutic the reading and preaching of Old Testament texts as Word. Elective, one or two semester hours, Staff

MN 335W Topics in Preaching

A course focusing on preaching as it pertains to a particular topic or set of biblical texts. Elective, One or two semester hours, Giere/Staff

MN 354W Leading and Cultivating Missional Communities

This course intends to help students create an imagination for leading faith communities in mission. A framework for understanding congregations as missional communities will guide our mutual conversation. We will explore how one's understanding of God's purpose for the world shapes our identity as leaders of congregations. How do leaders create the space for congregations to recognize and discern God's presence and action in their midst? Specific investigation into communal discernment and conversation will be addressed. General elective or as elective for the Mission Development Concentration., two semester hours, Stache

MN 355W The Cultures of Youth and the Question of Identity

In this course we will examine the cultures and sub-cultures of youth in order to consider the question of identity. Students will think theologically, in a collegial setting, about the study of culture and cultural processes in relationship to adolescent identity development. The course will help students learn how to set up "listening posts" in order to engage and interpret cultures for the sake of faithful, truthful, and effective ministry with young people and their families. Distribution course for the YCM Concentration or an elective, one or two semester hours, Frambach

MN 365W Systems Thinking and Family Theory in Pastoral Ministry

This course will introduce basic systems theory as the matrix for human development and the emerging life of faith. Attention will be given to integrating systems thinking and theological reflection in pastoral ministry. General and family systems thinking and theory will be juxtaposed in order to consider the role and adequacy of each in the life and ministry of congregations. A wide variety of resources will be explored and employed for interpreting persons how can we care more effectively for people of differing cultural backgrounds? Partially fulfills pastoral care distribution requirement. One or two semester hours, Frambach

MN 368W Gender, Power and Leadership

The course gives students opportunity to explore deeply the realities of domination and oppression and the power cycle as we, together, work toward more healthy partnerships in church and society. We will discuss theological grounding in the creeds: being created for interdependence, reconciled in Christ, and renewed for relationships of shared power and liberating styles of ministerial leadership. One semester hour, Staff

MN 370W Internship

A full year (or 18 months part-time if a CL student) of intensive involvement for the MDiv student in responsible, pastoral ministry under the supervision of an experienced pastor and the seminary. It normally follows successful completion of a student's second year of academic work (or starting as early as spring semester in the second year if a CL student). All internships are assigned by the faculty upon recommendation of the student/faculty Internship Task Force. See: MDiv Internship. Required, MDiv students. Twenty-seven semester hours

MN 375W Loss and Grief

An examination of the dynamics of loss and grief from a pastoral theological perspective with special attention to the meaning of death in human life. Elective, one semester hour, Frambach or Staff

MN 378W Marriage in Pastoral Perspective: Pre-Marital, Re-Marital, and Marital Counseling

This course will focus on the ministry of pastoral counseling as it relates to the couple relationship and marriage. Attention will be given to pre-marital couple counseling as well as the unique dynamics involved in re-marital couple counseling. Current concepts and techniques in the field of marriage counseling will be considered and evaluated from systemic, socio-cultural, and theological perspectives. Elective, one semester hour, Frambach

MN 379W The Practice of Assessment in Pastoral Care

This course will explore the practice of assessment in parish ministry. The ministry of pastoral care is the primary domain of the pastoral leader, whereas pastoral counseling is a more specialized ministry to which not all are called and for which not all pastoral leaders have the requisite skills and competencies. Good pastoral assessment allows a pastoral leader to gather enough information in order to make a theologically informed decision about what care is needed. "Where do I start?" "What do I ask?" "Is this my terrain or not?" These and other fundamental questions will be discussed and addressed. Elective, one semester hour, Frambach

MN 383W When Faith Hurts: Recognizing and Responding to the Spiritual Impact of Child Abuse

This course assists current and future faith leaders in developing the skills to recognize and respond with excellence to cases of child sexual abuse, physical abuse, and neglect. Special emphasis is placed on the spiritual impact of child abuse and the importance of coordinating pastoral care with medical and mental health care. Students will also learn best practices for church child protection policies, including policies for managing a sex offender within the congregation. Elective, one semester hour, Affiliate instructors

MN 387W Ministry With and Among People With Disabilities

This intensive is intended to alert students to the realities of disability, to the challenges involved in working for justice, and to the manifold opportunities for ministry with and among persons of differing abilities. Elective, one semester hour, Affiliate instructors

MN 394W Pastoral Care in Cross-Cultural Perspective

This course examines pastoral care practices as they have developed in churches in a wide variety of cultures throughout the world, and asks: what is universal in the practice of pastoral care, and how can we care more effectively for people of differing cultural backgrounds? Elective, One semester hour, Frambach or Staff

MN 396W/E January Interim Course (titles vary)

The course number is reserved for use with courses taught during the January Interim, particularly those not intended to meet the MDiv cross-cultural requirement. Fulfills a January Interim requirement for a Masters degree, two semester hours, Staff

MN 397W Rural Immersion (J-Term)

Students, together with clergy and lay persons from small town and rural congregations, study issues affecting America's small town and rural (STaR) communities. Clergy and lay persons from STaR congregations and communities are engaged as part of the course. Contexts include southwestern Minnesota, western Iowa, and North Dakota. Implications for ministry and leadership in these contexts are explored. Plenary class meetings are held before and after the field experience. Fulfills the M. Div. rural ministry requirement, two or three semester hours, Staff

MN 398W/E January Interim Cross-Cultural Course (titles vary)

The course number is reserved for use with courses taught during the January Interim that will meet the MDiv and MADM cross-cultural degree requirement. Typically these courses involve travel or an intentional focus on "immersion" into learning and reflecting in group settings. Fulfills a Cross-Cultural January Interim requirement for a Masters degree, two semester hours, Staff

Independent Study

A student may do independent reading or a research project on a topic within the ministry division with the approval and under the guidance of one of the instructors in the division. One to three semester hours.

MN 199W Readings and Directed Research (First-year level)MN 299W Readings and Directed Research (Second-year level)*MN 399W Readings and Directed Research (Final-year or graduating student level)

Integrative/Integrated Courses

Integrative courses are taught by the professors of all three divisions. Integrated courses are normally taught by a single professor.

IN 109W Young Adult Immersion: Campus Ministry and Young Adult Faith Development (January Interim)

This course will explore young adulthood in a changing world, with a particular focus on young adult faith development. The notion of mentoring young adults in their search for meaning, purpose, and faith will be central to this course. The primary focus for this course will be ministries with young adults in college and university settings. Pedagogy for this course revolves around various "mini-immersions" and excursions in conjunction with group conversation and reflection that seek to integrate the contextual experiences from a theological and pastoral perspective. Distribution course for the YCM concentration or elective. January Interim, two or three semester hours, Frambach/Staff

IN 123W Diaconal Ministry: Foundation [Previously numbered as MN 157W before Fall 2023]

We will explore Word and Service ministry through understanding being part of the historic, global diaconal movement of serving people at the margins with compassion and justice. Centered on the Word, we will come together through various means for conversation, prayer, discussion of readings and discernment. Themes include faithful, public, relational, authoritative and collegial servanthood. Required for first-year MA in Diaconal Ministry students; open to others. One credit hour, Yip

IN 127W MA Colloquium [Previously numbered as MN 165W before Fall 2023]

This course will foster professional collegiality among the MA students, discuss their ministry context or desired ministry context, look at a variety of ministries, and begin to work towards the capstone research project. Required for first-year MA students, in the fall semester. One semester hour, Staff

IN 141W Jesus Christ and Plural Worlds [Requirement IN-1]

This course explores the place and meanings of religion for human life in our contemporary pluralistic religious and cultural worlds with a view to the questions of how we bear effective witness to Jesus Christ in this reality and the relation of justification and justice in Christ. Required of most first-year Masters degree students. Two semester hours. Giere / W. Persaud / Yip

IN 142W Formation for Discipleship: Vocation, Witness, and Ministry [Requirement IN-2]

In this course we will reflect theologically on the baptismal foundations of Christian formation. We will critically examine our vocational callings informed by faith in Jesus Christ, which frees us for lives of witness and service in a complex world. Life together, in community and as community, centers us to explore ministry and mission in God's world, including the contextual and systemic challenges of race, ethnicity, class, and gender. Two semester hours, W. Persaud / Nessian / Schnell

IN 161/162W Spiritual Practices 1 & 2 IN 261/262W Spiritual Practices 3 & 4 IN 361/362W Spiritual Practices 5 & 6 [Requirements IN-7.1 through IN 7.6]

This course provides opportunities and resources for faith development through plenary sessions, small groups, reading a common text, praying the Scriptures, and personal faith practices. Spiritual Practices explores classic and contemporary spiritual practices and fosters dwelling in God's Word. The course models accountability and collegiality in small groups for building spiritual community.

*Required (up to six semesters, depending on degree program) for all degree students
One half semester hour each, Staff*

IN 171/172W Fieldwork 1 and 2

This requirement invites both action and reflection. Students partner with community service organizations to serve the common good, engaging a minimum of thirty hours per semester in service, practicing accompaniment and exploring bridge-building between church and community. Typically, fieldwork is completed in service organizations, although service can also be offered in a congregation, parish, or other organized ministry. Collaborative Learning students are especially encouraged to engage in this course through opportunities available in their ministry sites, with already established community partners.

Required for 2nd-Year MDiv students. One semester hour each semester. Contextual Education Staff

IN 243W 21st Century Leadership: Public, Connected, and Adaptive [Requirement IN-3]

Students in this course will be equipped to see themselves as servant leaders in relation to the Gospel, other individuals, the faith community, and the wider public. By studying systems theory, diverse forms of communication, and strategies for stewarding local resources, the course cultivates personal leadership skills, capacities, and assets for leadership. This course includes direct training in interpersonal boundaries.

*Required, MDiv (typically 2nd-year)
Two semester hours. Frambach, Stache*

IN 252W Finance and Stewardship for Ministers ("Business Sense" for Ministers)

This course will consider options for encouraging Biblical financial stewardship, review and consider various parish budget formats and administration, review potential Call salary, benefits, and housing issues, and discuss personal financial situations facing ministers. Elective, one semester hour, Staff

IN 266W Lived Theology Seminar

This seminar explores the question: How might theology engage lived experience with the same care and precision given by theologians to books and articles? Drawing on the ground-breaking developments in the study of lived religion and theological ethnography, the course will invite students to consider the social consequences of the theological ideas through diverse settings such as: congregational life, democratic practice/activism, and work in everyday life. There will be options for students to tailor this course for elective credit in the Mission Development concentrations. Pre-requisite: HT140: Systematic Theology or permission of the instructor.

One, two, or three semester hours, Staff

IN 300W Research Seminar

This seminar course will help students develop skills and practices for completing a major research project or thesis. Readings, discussions, and activities will foster development of research and writing skills. Students will explore and examine resources, discover research tools, develop search strategies, and reflect on the concept of scholarship as conversation. Required for MDiv students completing the thesis option. This course is also helpful to those completing a concentration and its required project, and to those desiring enhanced research and writing skills. Taught fall semester. One semester hour, Staff

IN 301W MDiv / MA / MADM Thesis

By permission of the faculty only. A MDiv/MA/MADM student may petition prior to or at the start of their final year to complete in their final year an optional major research project and writing that culminates in a thesis presented for defense in the spring semester. Students complete the thesis under the guidance of both an assigned thesis advisor and a thesis reader, both who also evaluate the thesis. Students approved to complete a thesis are highly recommended to also take IN 300W in their final-year fall semester. Six semester hours, Thesis Advisors.

IN 304W Research for Optional Thesis

This optional independent study in research is directed toward the completion of the optional IN 301W Thesis. It can be taken any time during or after completion of the IN 300W Research Seminar. Two or three semester hours, Staff

IN 320W Deacon Internship

This registration enables students to perform Deacon Internship required for the Word and Service roster in the ELCA. Placement for internship will be determined in conjunction with the Contextual Education office and the student's synod. Required, MA in Diaconal Ministry, twelve semester hours.

IN 323W Diaconal Ministry: Advanced

Reflecting theologically on internship and field work, students will work inductively to do constructive theology, further developing skills for students' particular areas of service and advocacy. We will engage in conversation, readings, brief weekly statements, case studies, and connection with deacons/diaconal ministers. Together we strive to help the church itself become more diaconal, serving with a prophetic voice in the world and also within the church. The course will foster building connections with diaconal communities in the ELCA, ecumenically, and globally. Required for final-year MA in Diaconal

Ministry students; open to others. Two semester hours. Yip

IN 325W MADM Integrative Capstone Seminar

This course is a seminar of student-selected, mutually accountable Capstone projects. Students are encouraged to engage a topic that integrates possible ministry areas as a deacon with what they have learned in seminary. These projects should enhance students' theological understandings and ministerial skills and should include scholarly research. Content will include research methods, suggestions for resources, and avenues of research. Required for MA in Diaconal Ministry. Three semester hours. Yip, Staff

IN 327W MA Integrative Capstone Seminar [Previously numbered as IN 347W before Fall 2023]

This course is a seminar of student selected mutually accountable Capstone projects. Students are encouraged to engage a topic that integrates strong interests, passions, or growth areas with what they have learned in seminary. These projects should enhance students' theological understandings and ministerial skills and should include scholarly research. Content will include research methods, suggestions for resources, and avenues of research. Required for Master of Arts. Three semester hours. Staff

IN 344W MDiv Integrative Capstone Seminar [Requirement IN-4]

This course is a seminar of student selected mutually-accountable projects. Students are encouraged to engage a topic that addresses strong interests, passions, or growth areas. These projects should enhance students' theological understandings and ministerial skills. Faculty will act as guides suggesting resources and avenues of research. Seminar groups meet weekly. Required for final-year MDiv students. Three semester hours, Staff

IN 345W Word, Image, Imagination [Requirement IN-5]

This course examines the relationship between a creating God and a creative humanity, especially as joined in Christ the Word and Image of God. In addition to thinking about creativity in light of scripture, the Christian tradition and cultural studies, participants will each choose individual topics to study and shape, producing creative works that explore faith artistically and engage cultural forms theologically. Open-ended in medium and subject, these projects will collectively aim to enrich communal conversations about Christ, culture, and gospel proclamation. Required for final-year MDiv students. Three semester hours, Lohrmann and Staff

IN 346W Reading and Leading in Context: Methods, Media, and Entrepreneurial Practices [Requirement IN-6]

The congregation is a generative locus of theology. An essential focus of the course is helping students cultivate the capacity and develop the skills needed to generate a "thick description" of congregation and communal contexts for the sake of faithful, truthful, and effective evangelical public leadership. In order to do this,

students will explore and practice using tools and resources from congregational studies and deepen their awareness and facility with basic social scientific tools and skills for interpreting contexts and leading through change. In addition, attention will be given to deepening the capacity for cultural exegesis, thus becoming more culturally savvy pastoral leaders. Required for final-year MDiv students; also a concentration elective for MA in Diaconal Ministry students completing the Mission Development Concentration. Three semester hours, Stache

A student may do independent reading or a research project on a topic that is truly interdisciplinary with the approval and under the guidance of a faculty member of the seminary. Independent studies under the IN category are rare and only used in those few instances when a disciplinary label (i.e., BI, HT, MN) is not appropriate. One to three semester hours.
